Appointment of Director-General, etc.

3. —(1) The Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint any person to be the Director-General, Agri-Food and Veterinary Services who shall be responsible for the administration of this Act and any other written law.

[16/2000]

(2) The Director-General may in writing appoint any public officer or any officer of the Authority or of any other statutory authority to be an authorised officer for the purposes of this Act.

[16/2000]

(3) The Director-General may delegate all or any of the powers conferred or duties imposed upon him by this Act to any authorised officer.

[16/2000]

Designation of authorised examiners

4. The Director-General may, subject to any general or special directions of the Minister, in writing designate any suitably qualified person as an authorised examiner to carry out, at any appointed place, any examination, treatment or certification and any other similar, related or ancillary functions which are required by this Act to be carried out.

[3A
[10/2002]

Public servants

5. All authorised officers shall be deemed to be public servants for the purposes of the Penal Code (Cap. 224).

[10/2002]

Identification card to be produced

6. —(1) Every authorised officer, officer of customs or police officer when exercising any powers under this Act shall —

(a) if not in uniform, declare his office; and

(b) on demand, produce to any person affected by the exercise of those powers such identification card as the Director-General, the Director-General of Customs or the Commissioner of Police respectively may direct to be carried by the authorised officers, officers of customs or police officers.

[16/2000]

(2) It shall not be an offence for any person to refuse to comply with any request, demand or order made or given by any authorised officer, officer of customs or police officer not in uniform, who fails to declare his office and refuses to produce his identification card on demand being made by that person.

[5]

Power to make orders with regard to importation, etc.

7. —(1) The Minister may make orders —

(a) specifying the countries or the parts of any country from which animals and birds, or any specified kinds of animals or birds, may be imported or transhipped either with or without restriction; or

(b) prohibiting, either absolutely or conditionally, the import and transhipment from any specified country or any specified part of a country of any carcase, semen, fodder, litter, dung or any product of animals or birds or any article or substance that is likely to convey or spread any disease.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of any order made under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

No person to import or tranship any animal, bird or veterinary biologics without licence

8. —(1) Except as provided in any order made under section 7 (1), no person shall import or tranship any animal, bird or veterinary biologics, except in accordance with a licence issued in that behalf by the Director-General and in accordance with the conditions (if any) of that licence and such other conditions as may be prescribed.

[16/2000]

(2) A licence to import or tranship any animal, bird or veterinary biologics under this Act may be obtained on an application made in the prescribed form to the Director-General and upon the payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

[16/2000]

(3) Any person importing or transshipping an animal, bird or veterinary biologics in contravention of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Importation or possession of noxious insects, pests or genetically modified organisms, etc.

9. —(1) No person shall knowingly import into Singapore or shall have in his possession any living noxious insect, or any living pest, or any living disease germ or virus or any bacterial culture, of a nature harmful or dangerous to animals or birds, or any genetically modified organism without the prior written consent of the Director-General.

[16/2000;10/2002]

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[67
[10/2002]

Examination of imported animals and birds

10. —(1) Any person who has imported any animal or bird shall, if so directed by the Director-General or an authorised officer, immediately upon the arrival of the animal or bird in Singapore, at his own expense arrange for the animal or bird to be examined by an authorised examiner.

[10/2002]

(2) For the purpose of carrying out the examination of any animal or bird under subsection (1), an authorised examiner may detain the animal or bird at a quarantine station or such other place as may be approved by the Director-General or an authorised officer until the completion of the examination.

[10/2002]

(3) If any animal or bird, upon being examined by an authorised examiner under subsection (1), is certified by the authorised examiner to be suffering from —

(a) any disease or injury which, in the opinion of the authorised examiner, cannot be treated or relieved; or

(b) any disease which is likely to spread unless the animal or bird is destroyed, the person who imported the animal or bird shall, at his own expense, cause that animal or bird to be destroyed at once and the carcase thereof to be disposed of in such manner as may be specified by the Director-General or an authorised officer.

[10/2002]

(4) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (1) or (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Arrival of animal or bird to be reported

11. —(1) The master of any ship or aircraft and the guard of any train on which there is any animal or bird, whether that animal or bird is intended to be landed in Singapore or not, shall immediately on the first arrival of the ship, aircraft or train at a port, airfield or station in Singapore report the fact to a port officer or the officer in charge of the airfield or the station master, as the case may be, who shall without delay inform the authorised officer.

[16/2000]

(2) An authorised officer may —

(a) board any ship, aircraft or train for the purpose of examining any animal or bird therein; or

(b) direct the master of the ship or aircraft or the guard of the train to arrange, at his own expense, for the animal or bird to be examined by an authorised examiner.

(3) Notwithstanding the fact that —

(a) a licence has been issued for the importation or transshipment of an animal or bird under section 8; or

(b) any animal or bird comes from a country or part of a country which has been specified in an order made under section 7 (1) (a),

the port officer or officer in charge of an airfield or station master shall not permit that animal or bird to be landed from the ship or removed from the aircraft or the train, as the case may be, until he has personally satisfied himself that the authorised officer has granted a permit for the landing or removal of that animal or bird from the ship, aircraft or train.

[16/2000]

(4) Any person who —

(a) fails to make a report as is required under subsection (1);

(b) fails to comply with any direction given to him by an authorised officer under subsection (2); or

(c) permits an animal or bird to be landed or removed from any ship, aircraft or train in contravention of subsection (3), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Power to deal with diseased animals and birds being imported into Singapore

12. —(1) Where the Director-General or an authorised officer has reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is on board any vehicle, aircraft or ship that has entered or that is about to enter Singapore any animal or bird that is infected with any disease, the Director-General or authorised officer may direct the person who is or who appears to be in command or charge of the vehicle, aircraft or ship to take all or any of the following measures at his own expense:

(a) ensure that any animal or bird on board the vehicle, aircraft or ship is not (as the case requires) removed from the vehicle, aircraft or ship or brought into Singapore;

(b) arrange for any animal or bird on board the vehicle, aircraft or ship to be examined by an authorised examiner;

(c) cause any animal or bird on board the vehicle, aircraft or ship which is infected or reasonably suspected to be infected with any disease and any other animal or bird on board the vehicle, aircraft or ship which has or may have come into contact with such animal or bird to be —

(i) destroyed and disposed of in such manner as the Director-General or authorised officer may specify;

(ii) removed from Singapore;

(iii) treated in such manner as may be specified in the direction or by the authorised examiner who examined the animal or bird; or

(iv) quarantined in such manner, at such place and for such period as the Director-General or authorised officer may specify;

(d) ensure that the vehicle, aircraft or ship does not enter Singapore or remove the vehicle, aircraft or ship from Singapore (as the case requires), if the Director-General is satisfied that such measure is necessary for the prevention of the introduction or spread of any disease in Singapore.

[10/2002]

(2) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any animal or bird which is required to be destroyed under subsection (1) (c) (i).

[10/2002]

(3) Any person who fails to comply with any direction given to him by the Director-General or an authorised officer under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Animals and birds on board ship

13. —(1) Any animal or bird imported or transhipped by sea shall, unless an authorised officer has authorised its landing, at all times while on board the ship in any port be confined in an enclosed part of the ship or in a cage or kennel.

[16/2000;10/2002]

(2) If any animal or bird dies or is lost from a ship while in the port, the master of the ship shall immediately notify the authorised officer of the death or loss.

[16/2000;10/2002]

(3) The master of any ship, in any case —

(a) in which any animal or bird imported or transhipped by sea in that ship has, in contravention of subsection (1), not been confined while on board the ship in the port; or

(b) where he fails without reasonable cause to notify the death or loss of any animal or bird while the ship is in the port, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[11/2002]

Permission to land carcasses

14. —(1) No person shall land from any ship or remove from any aircraft, train or vehicle the carcass of any animal or bird without the written permission of an authorised officer who may give directions in writing as to the manner of its disposal.

[16/2000]

(2) Any person —

(a) landing or removing the carcass of an animal or bird in contravention of subsection (1); or

(b) who fails to comply with the directions in writing of an authorised officer given under subsection (1), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[16/2000;10/2002]

Destruction or disinfection of certain articles

15. —(1) Where an authorised officer is of the opinion that any bedding, litter, fodder or other material imported by land, sea or air may convey or spread any animal disease, he may —

(a) seize and detain; and

(b) in his discretion order the destruction or disinfection of, that bedding, litter, fodder or other material.

[16/2000]

(2) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any bedding, litter, fodder or other material that is destroyed under subsection (1).

[14
[10/2002]

No person to export any animal or bird without licence

16. —(1) No person shall export any animal or bird or the carcase of any animal or bird except in accordance with —

(a) a licence in that behalf issued by the Director-General;

(b) the conditions of that licence (if any); and

(c) such other conditions as may be prescribed.

[16/2000]

(2) A licence to export any animal or bird or the carcase of any animal or bird may be issued upon an application made in the prescribed form to the Director-General and upon the payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

[16/2000]

(3) Any person exporting any animal or bird or the carcase of any animal or bird in contravention of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[15

Examination and treatment of animals and birds before exportation

17. —(1) Any person who intends to export any animal or bird from Singapore shall, if so directed by the Director-General or an authorised officer, arrange, at his own expense, for the animal or bird to be examined and, if necessary, treated by an authorised examiner before exporting the animal or bird.

[10/2002]

(2) For the purpose of carrying out the examination or treatment of any animal or bird under subsection (1), an authorised examiner may detain the animal or bird at a quarantine station or such other place as may be approved by the Director-General or an authorised officer until the completion of the examination or treatment.

[10/2002]

(3) If any animal or bird, upon being examined by an authorised examiner under subsection (1), is certified by the authorised examiner to be infected with any disease —

(a) the person intending to export the animal or bird shall not export the animal or bird without the prior approval of the Director-General or an authorised officer; and

(b) the Director-General or an authorised officer may direct the person intending to export the animal or bird to treat or destroy the animal or bird at his own expense in such manner as may be specified by the Director-General or authorised officer.

[10/2002]

(4) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (1) or (3) (a) or with any direction given to him by the Director-General or an authorised officer under subsection (3) (b) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Certificate of freedom from disease

18. —(1) Any person intending to export any animal or bird or the carcass thereof or any product derived from such animal, bird or carcass may apply to an authorised examiner —

(a) for a certificate certifying that Singapore is free from such disease as may be specified in the certificate; or

(b) for the animal, bird, carcass or product, as the case may be, to be examined and thereafter certified as to whether it is free from any disease or other condition.

[10/2002]

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

[66
[10/2002]

Examination of animal or bird suspected of disease

19. —(1) If the Director-General or an authorised officer has reason to believe that any animal or bird may be infected with any disease, he may subject that animal or bird and any article or substance which has been in contact therewith to an examination.

[10/2002]

(2) For the purpose of this section —

(a) the Director-General or authorised officer may —

(i) seize the animal or bird as well as the whole or any sample of any article or substance which has been in contact therewith and take them to the place of examination; or

(ii) in writing direct the owner or person in charge of the animal or bird to deliver the animal or bird as well as the whole or any sample of any article or substance which has been in contact therewith to an authorised examiner at a specified place and time; and

(b) the authorised examiner carrying out the examination may take any substance from the animal or bird or destroy the animal or bird and conduct a post-mortem examination on its carcass, if that is the appropriate method by which he may, in accordance with accepted veterinary practice, determine whether the animal or bird has been infected with any particular disease.

[10/2002]

(3) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any animal or bird which has been destroyed under subsection (2) (b).

[10/2002]

(4) Any person who —

(a) fails without lawful excuse to comply with any written direction given to him under subsection (2) (a) (ii); or

(b) without the permission of the Director-General or an authorised officer removes any animal or bird from the place to which it has been delivered under subsection (2) (a) (ii), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Isolation or destruction of diseased animal or bird

20. —(1) The Director-General or an authorised officer may require the immediate isolation or destruction of any animal or bird if —

(a) the animal or bird is certified by an authorised examiner, upon any examination carried out under section 19, to be infected with disease;

(b) the Director-General or authorised officer has other reasonable cause for believing that the animal or bird is infected with disease; or

(c) the Director-General or authorised officer has reasonable cause for believing that the animal or bird —

(i) may have been in contact with another animal or bird which is infected with disease;

(ii) may have been exposed to disease; or

(iii) may perpetuate any disease.

[10/2002]

(2) Any person who refuses or fails without lawful excuse to isolate or destroy any animal or bird when required to do so by the Director-General or an authorised officer under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Compensation for any animal or bird destroyed

21. —(1) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any animal or bird which has been destroyed under section 20.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Minister may in his discretion authorise the payment of such sum as he may determine as compensation in respect of any animal or bird which has been destroyed.

Post-mortem examination

22. —(1) The Director-General or an authorised officer may cause the carcass of any animal or bird to be subject to a post-mortem examination.

[10/2002]

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Director-General or authorised officer may give written directions —

(a) for the carcass, if already buried, to be exhumed for the purpose of a post-mortem examination; and

(b) for the carcass to be delivered to an authorised examiner at a specified place and time.

[10/2002]

(3) Any person who —

(a) fails without lawful excuse to comply with any written direction given to him under subsection (2); or

(b) without the permission of the Director-General or an authorised officer removes the carcass from the place to which it has been delivered under subsection (2) (b), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Animal or bird exposed to infection

23. —(1) If an authorised officer considers that any animal or bird has been exposed to infection to any disease, he may give written directions for that animal or bird to be subjected to such treatment as he may consider necessary, including vaccine or serum therapy or a combination of such therapy.

[16/2000]

(2) Any person who fails, without lawful excuse, to comply with any written direction given to him under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Disinfection of building

24. —(1) An authorised officer may give written directions for —

(a) the disinfection in such manner as he may determine of any building in which an infected animal or bird has been found or kept;

(b) prohibiting the use of any such building until the building has been disinfected in accordance with such directions as may have been given under paragraph (a).

[16/2000]

(2) Any person who fails, without lawful excuse, to comply with any written direction given to him under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Destruction of building

25. —(1) If an authorised officer is of the opinion that any building which has been occupied by an infected animal cannot be effectively disinfected, he may give written directions, with the approval of the Minister, to the owner or occupier thereof to destroy the building and to burn the materials thereof within such time as may be specified in the order.

[16/2000]

(2) If an order made under subsection (1) is not complied with within the time specified in the order, the authorised officer may cause the building and the materials thereof to be destroyed.

[16/2000]

(3) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any building which has been destroyed by the owner or occupier thereof in compliance with written directions or by an authorised officer under subsection (1) or (2), as the case may be.

[16/2000]

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Minister may in his discretion authorise the payment of such sum as he may determine as compensation in respect of any building referred to in subsection (3).

[16/2000]

(5) Any person who fails, without lawful excuse, to comply with any written direction given to him under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Disinfection or destruction of articles

26. —(1) An authorised officer may give written directions for the disinfection or destruction of any bedding, clothing, harness, fitting, buckets, pails or utensils whatsoever used in connection with any infected animal or bird.

[16/2000]

(2) No compensation is payable in respect of any bedding, clothing, harness, fitting, buckets, pails or utensils destroyed under subsection (1).

(3) Any person who fails, without lawful excuse, to comply with any written direction given to him under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Disinfection of person and clothing

27. —(1) An authorised officer may require the disinfection of the body and clothing of any person who has been in contact with or in charge of or attended upon any animal or bird infected with or in the opinion of the authorised officer infected with disease.

[16/2000]

(2) Any person who fails, without lawful excuse, to comply with any requirement under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Disinfection of vehicles

28. —(1) An authorised officer may require the disinfection of any vehicle or conveyance —

(a) entering or leaving an area declared to be an infected area, under section 35; or

(b) which has been used in the transport of any animal or bird infected with or in the opinion of the authorised officer infected with disease.

[16/2000]

(2) Any person who fails, without lawful excuse, to comply with any requirement under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Disposal of infected animal, bird or carcase

29. —(1) No person shall knowingly cast or cause or permit to be cast into any drain, ditch, water channel, street or open space, or otherwise expose any animal or bird or the carcase of any animal or bird which is or has been infected with disease or any fodder, litter, dung or thing which has been used in connection with any infected animal or bird.

(2) Any person who acts in contravention of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Owner of diseased or dead animal or bird to report

30. —(1) Every owner or person in charge of any animal or bird infected with or reasonably suspected to be infected with disease shall —

(a) immediately make a report to an authorised officer or to the nearest police station; and

(b) at once cause that animal or bird and all other animals or birds which have been in contact with it to be confined and isolated until the arrival of an authorised officer.

[16/2000]

(2) Every owner or person in charge of any animal or bird reasonably suspected to have died of disease shall immediately report its death to the authorised officer or the nearest police station and, in the case of an animal, the carcase shall not be moved without written permission from the authorised officer.

[16/2000]

(3) It shall not be an offence to bury the carcase of the animal, if no instructions have been received within 24 hours of making the report referred to in subsection (2).

[16/2000]

(4) Where the officer in charge of a police station has communicated the contents of a report by telephone to an authorised officer, he shall as soon as possible transmit the report to the authorised officer.

[16/2000]

(5) Any person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to make a report as required under subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

(6) Any person who without reasonable excuse —

(a) fails to cause any animal or bird to be confined and isolated as is required by subsection (1); or

(b) permits the carcass of an animal or bird to be moved in contravention of subsection (2), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Application

31. Sections 32 to 36 shall not apply to dogs and cats.

Disposal of dead animal or bird

32. —(1) The owner or person in charge of any animal or bird that has died from disease or has been destroyed by order of an authorised officer shall burn or otherwise dispose of the carcass thereof in accordance with the written directions of the authorised officer.

[16/2000]

(2) Any person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with any written directions given to him by an authorised officer under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[16/2000;10/2002]

Moving or disposal of diseased or suspected animal or bird

33. —(1) No person shall move or dispose, whether by sale or otherwise, of any animal or bird diseased or reasonably suspected of being diseased or of being a contact of any diseased animal or bird or of the carcass of such an animal or bird, or of the milk, dung or blood of such an animal, except with the written consent of an authorised officer.

[16/2000]

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Removal of articles from infected premises

34. —(1) An authorised officer may give written directions prohibiting the removal of milk, manure, fodder, litter or other articles likely to carry or convey infection, from premises on which there is or recently has been, any animal or bird infected with disease.

[16/2000]

(2) Any person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with any written directions given to him under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Infected areas

35. —(1) Whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that any disease exists amongst any animals or birds in any part of Singapore, the Minister may by order declare that part to be an infected area and may in the order —

(a) prohibit, either absolutely or conditionally, the removal of any animal or bird or any specified kind of animal or bird into or out of that area; and

(b) restrict the movement of persons and vehicles, aircraft and ships into, within or out of that area.

[10/2002]

(2) When an area has been declared to be an infected area under subsection (1), the Director-General or an authorised officer may give the owner or person in charge of any animal or bird in that area such written directions as the Director-General or authorised officer may consider necessary to control and check the spread of the disease.

[10/2002]

(3) Directions issued under subsection (2) may —

(a) regulate the tying-up, isolation, segregation, movement or slaughter of animals or birds in the infected area; and

(b) require the taking of any measure as may be specified by the Director-General or authorised officer.

[10/2002]

(4) Any animal or bird allowed to stray within an infected area, in contravention of any written direction given under subsection (2), may —

(a) be destroyed immediately by an authorised officer or any person acting under his direction; or

(b) be seized and detained until its forfeiture has been declared under the provisions of this Act.

[16/2000;10/2002]

(5) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any animal or bird so destroyed or seized under subsection (4).

(6) Any person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with any order given to him under subsection (1) or with any written directions given to him under subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Special permission

36. The authorised officer may grant, subject to such conditions as he may impose, written permission to the owner of any animal or bird to remove it into or out of any infected area.

[16/2000]

Rabies infected areas

37. —(1) The Minister may at any time as a precaution against rabies by order declare Singapore or any part thereof to be a rabies-infected area.

(2) No person shall take any dog out of a rabies-infected area or out of Singapore when any part thereof is a rabies-infected area, except in accordance with a written permit issued by an authorised officer.

[16/2000]

(3) The owner or person in charge of any dog within a rabies-infected area shall cause the dog to be kept under effective control —

(a) by confining it within an enclosed area from which it would be impossible for the dog to escape;

(b) by tying it up securely; or

(c) by leading it with a chain or lead of strong cord or leather properly secured to a collar or harness worn by the dog.

(4) If the authorised officer is satisfied that any dog or class of dogs, whether by reason of prophylactic treatment or otherwise, is immune from infection by rabies, he may exempt that dog or class of dogs from the requirements of subsection (3), subject to such conditions as may be imposed by him.

[16/2000]

(5) Any dog found within a rabies-infected area which is not under effective control under subsection (3) may be destroyed by any person authorised in writing in that behalf by the authorised officer.

[16/2000]

(6) Any person authorised under subsection (5) —

(a) may enter any land, building or premises for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of that subsection;

(b) shall not enter into any dwelling-house for that purpose specified under that subsection, except during the day; and

(c) shall, if required, produce and show his written authority to the owner, occupier or person for the time being in charge of the land, building or premises.

[16/2000]

(7) Any person who acts in contravention of subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

(8) Any person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[38
[10/2002]

Destruction or detention of animal suspected to be infected with rabies

38. —(1) Where an authorised officer reasonably suspects that any animal may be infected with rabies or has been exposed to rabies infection he may, in his discretion, either —

(a) cause the animal to be destroyed immediately; or

(b) give written directions to the owner or person in charge of the animal requiring that owner or person to take it immediately to any animal quarantine station for detention and observation.

[16/2000]

(2) If the owner or person in charge of the animal fails to comply with the written directions given under subsection (1), the authorised officer may either cause the animal to be destroyed immediately or take possession of the animal and remove it to an animal quarantine station.

[16/2000]

(3) The authorised officer may either destroy the animal in the animal quarantine station or may detain it until he is satisfied that it is free from disease.

[16/2000]

(4) The authorised officer may take possession of the body of any animal that has died or has been destroyed and which is reasonably suspected to have been infected with rabies and may dispose of it in such manner as he may think fit.

[16/2000]

(5) No compensation shall be payable to any person in respect of the destruction of any animal under subsection (1), (2) or (3).

(6) Any person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with any written directions given to him under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

(7) In this section, “animal” means any four-footed beast in captivity or under control.

[39]

Detention of any dog that has bitten a person

39. —(1) An authorised officer or police officer may give directions requiring the owner or person in charge of any dog that has or is reasonably believed to have bitten any person to produce the dog at such place and time as he may determine.

[16/2000]

(2) If the owner or person in charge of the dog fails to comply with the directions given to him under subsection (1), the authorised officer or police officer may immediately take possession of the dog and remove it to an animal quarantine station.

[16/2000]

(3) Any person who fails, without lawful excuse, to comply with the directions given to him under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000.

[40]

[10/2002]

Anti-rabies vaccination of dogs

40. —(1) The Minister may make an order requiring that all dogs within Singapore or any part thereof specified in the order shall be submitted to anti-rabies vaccination.

(2) Where an order has been made under subsection (1) the authorised officer may specify periods of time within which, and the place at which, dogs or groups of dogs, shall be produced for the purpose of such vaccination.

[16/2000]

(3) All such arrangements for vaccination of dogs shall be published in such manner as the authorised officer may determine.

[16/2000]

(4) The Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, require that every dog which has been vaccinated in accordance with the order shall, after such date as may be specified in the notification, at all times during the continuance in force of the order and within the area to which the order applies, carry upon it a serially numbered badge, mark, tag or other evidence of vaccination.

(5) Any dog within the area after the date specified in the notification made under subsection (4), whether the dog is at large or not, which does not carry the proper evidence of vaccination may be destroyed.

(6) The authorised officer may authorise in writing any person to destroy dogs to give effect to subsection (5).

[16/2000]

(7) Any person so authorised may enter any land, building or premises for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of subsection (6).

(8) The person so authorised shall not enter into any dwelling for that purpose, except during the hours of daylight and shall, if required, produce and show his written authority to the owner, occupier or person for the time being in charge of the land, building or premises.

(9) If any person in charge of a dog fails to comply with any order or requirement under subsection (1) or (4), as the case may be, the authorised officer may immediately destroy that dog.

[16/2000]

(10) Any owner of or person in charge of a dog who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with an order made under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

(11) Any person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement contained in a notification made under subsection (4) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

(12) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any dog that is destroyed under this section.

[41

[10/2002]

Interpretation of this Part

41. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires, “animal” includes any beast, bird, fish, reptile or insect, whether wild or tame.

[42

Cruelty to animals

42. —(1) Any person who —

(a) cruelly beats, kicks, ill-treats, over-rides, over-drives, over-loads, tortures, infuriates or terrifies any animal;

(b) causes or procures or, being the owner, permits any animal to be so used;

(c) being in charge of any animal in confinement or in the course of transport from one place to another neglects to supply the animal with sufficient food and water;

(d) by wantonly or unreasonably doing or omitting to do any act, causes any unnecessary pain or suffering or, being the owner, permits any unnecessary pain or suffering to any animal;

(e) causes, procures or, being the owner, permits to be confined, conveyed, lifted or carried any animal in such a manner or position as to subject it to unnecessary pain or suffering;

(f) being the owner of any animal, abandons the animal without reasonable cause or excuse, whether permanently or not, in circumstances likely to cause the animal any unnecessary suffering or distress, or causes or permits the animal to be so abandoned;

(g) employs or causes or procures or, being the owner, permits to be employed in any work of labour, any animal which in consequence of any disease, infirmity, wound or sore, or otherwise is unfit to be so employed; or

(h) causes, procures or assists at the fighting or baiting of any animal, or keeps, uses, manages, or acts or assists in the management of any premises or place for the purpose, or partly for the purpose, of fighting or baiting any animal, or permits any premises or place to be so kept, managed or used, or receives or causes or procures any person to receive money for the admission of any person to the premises or place, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both; except where an owner is convicted of having permitted cruelty to an animal under subsection (2), he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $10,000.

[10/2002]

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an owner shall be deemed to have permitted cruelty to an animal, if he has failed to exercise reasonable care and supervision in respect of the animal.

(3) Nothing in this section applies to the commission or omission of any act in the course of the destruction, or the preparation for destruction of any animal as food, unless that destruction or preparation was accompanied by the infliction of unnecessary suffering.

Powers of authorised officers and police officers

43. —(1) Any authorised officer or any police officer may, without warrant —

(a) arrest any person who, in his presence, commits an offence under section 42;

(b) enter and search any premises in which he has reasonable cause for suspecting that an offence under section 42 has been or is being committed; and

(c) seize any animal in respect of which, and any conveyance or article with or by means of which, that offence is reasonably suspected to have been committed.

[10/2002]

(2) An authorised officer or a police officer acting under subsection (1) (b) may, if the circumstances so warrant, with such assistance as he thinks necessary, remove anything obstructing his entry to the premises or break open any door, window, lock, fastener, hold, compartment, box, container or any other thing.

[10/2002]

(3) Any person arrested and any conveyance or article seized under subsection (1) shall immediately be taken to a police station.

[10/2002]

(4) Any animal seized under subsection (1) shall be taken to a police station, pound, veterinary centre or any other place which the authorised officer or police officer thinks fit and may, subject to any order made in respect thereof by a Magistrate, be detained there until the accused has been tried by a court.

[10/2002]

(5) No compensation shall be payable to any person in respect of any damage to his property caused or occasioned by any act authorised by subsection (2).

[10/2002]

(6) Any authorised officer or any police officer may stop and examine in any street or public place any animal in respect of which he has reason to believe that an offence under section 42 has been or is being committed.

[44
[10/2002]

Orders by Magistrate when an offence has been committed

44. —(1) When any person has been convicted of an offence under section 42, the court may order

(a) that the animal in respect of which the offence was committed be taken to a veterinary centre or such other place as the court may specify and there detained and treated for any period stated in the order, or until released by further order of a Magistrate or until an authorised officer has certified in writing that it may properly be released;

(b) that the animal be treated by an authorised officer or by a person licensed under section 53 to treat animals and not used during such period as may be stated in the order or until permission to use it has been given by a Magistrate or an authorised officer; or

(c) if satisfied that the animal is incurably diseased or injured, that it be destroyed immediately by or under the direction of a police officer or an authorised officer and that the cost of burying or otherwise disposing of the carcase be borne by the person convicted.

[16/2000;10/2002]

(2) Where the court makes an order under subsection (1) (a), the person who has been convicted of an offence in respect of the animal shall be liable to pay the costs and expenses for its maintenance and treatment until it is declared fit for release or use.

[10/2002]

(3) Without prejudice to subsection (1), where the owner of any animal is convicted of an offence under section 42, the court may, upon convicting him, if it thinks fit, in addition to any other punishment, deprive him of the ownership of the animal and make such order as to the disposal of the animal as the court thinks fit.

[10/2002]

(4) The court shall not make an order under subsection (3) unless it is satisfied by evidence as to a previous conviction, or as to the character of the owner or otherwise, that the animal, if left with the owner, is likely to be exposed to cruelty.

[10/2002]

(5) Any person who acts in contravention of the provisions of an order made under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[45
[10/2002]

Power to order destruction of animals

45. —(1) An authorised officer or a police officer who has satisfied himself by personal inspection or otherwise —

(a) that an animal is diseased or injured and that the disease or injury from which the animal is suffering is incurable or that it is cruel to keep the animal alive; or

(b) that an animal is so diseased or so severely injured or in such a physical condition that, in his opinion, having regard to the means available for removing the animal there is no possibility of removing it without cruelty and that it is cruel to keep it alive, may give written directions requiring the animal to be destroyed and those directions may immediately be carried out by or under the supervision of that authorised officer or police officer or any other person authorised in that behalf by the authorised officer or police officer.

[21/93;16/2000;10/2002]

(2) If the animal so diseased or injured is in any house, stable, shed, or enclosure proper for that animal and not in a public thoroughfare, market or place, no written directions shall be given until the owner of the animal (if known) or person in charge (if any) has been duly notified of the state of the animal.

[21/73]

(3) If any animal is destroyed under written directions given under subsection (1), the expenses of the removal and burial of the carcase of the animal shall be paid by the owner or person in charge thereof and the amount thereof may be recovered from that owner or person in charge in a summary manner before a Magistrate.

[46]

No compensation for destruction of an animal incurably diseased or injured or destroyed at request of professed owner

46. No compensation shall in any case be payable to any person in respect of the destruction of any animal —

(a) under an order made under section 44 (1) (c);

(b) under written directions given under section 45 (1); or

(c) in compliance with a request in writing to an authorised officer or a person in charge of a veterinary centre or such other place as provided for in section 44 (1) by any person professing to be the owner of the animal.

[47]

Award to informer

47. The court before which any person is convicted of an offence under this Part may direct any fine or portion of any fine imposed and levied under this Act to be paid to the informer.

[48]

Animals and birds not to be kept in captivity for sale, export or exhibition without licence

48. —(1) No person shall keep in captivity for sale, export or exhibition any animal or bird in any place which has not been licensed in that behalf under this Act.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

Movement or slaughter of animals and birds may be prohibited

49. —(1) The Minister may by order —

(a) prohibit for such period as may be specified in the order the movement of any animals and birds from one part of Singapore to another except under a licence;

(b) prohibit during such period or periods as may be specified in the order the slaughter of any animal or bird except under a licence.

(2) A licence issued in accordance with an order made under subsection (1) shall be subject to such conditions as may be contained in the order or the licence.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of an order made under this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[50
[10/2002]

Power of search for diseased animals or birds

50. —(1) For the purpose of ascertaining whether any animal or bird is suffering from disease or for the purpose of ascertaining whether any offence under this Act has been or is being committed —

(a) any authorised officer or police officer may enter and examine any land, building or premises on or in which he suspects any animal or bird is being kept for the purpose of examining the animal, bird, land, building or premises and the owner of the land, building, premises, animal or bird shall render the authorised officer or police officer all necessary assistance and furnish such information as may be required of him; and

(b) any authorised officer, police officer or officer of customs may stop, enter and examine any conveyance used for carrying animals.

[16/2000]

(2) Any authorised officer, police officer or officer of customs acting under subsection (1) may, if the circumstances so warrant, with such assistance as he thinks necessary, remove anything obstructing his entry to the premises or conveyance or break open any door, window, lock, fastener, hold, compartment, box, container or any other thing.

[10/2002]

(3) No compensation shall be payable to any person in respect of any damage to his property caused or occasioned by any act authorised by subsection (2).

[10/2002]

(4) Any person in charge of a conveyance who does not stop when he is required to do so by any authorised officer, police officer or officer of customs under subsection (1) (b) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[51
[10/2002]

Seizure of animal, bird, carcasses or articles

51. —(1) Where any authorised officer or police officer has reason to believe that any offence under this Act has been or is being committed or where any officer of customs has reason to believe that an offence under this Act relating to importation or exportation has been or is being committed, the authorised officer, officer of customs or police officer may —

(a) seize any animal, bird, carcase or article, the subject-matter of such an offence; and

(b) remove that animal, bird, carcase or article to any compound, enclosure or other place selected by the authorised officer and there detain it.

[16/2000]

(2) Where any animal, bird, carcase or article has been seized and detained under subsection (1), the authorised officer, officer of customs or police officer shall report the same to a Magistrate and the Magistrate may make such order for the further detention or release of the animal, bird, carcase or article as he may think fit.

[16/2000]

(3) The owner of the animal, bird, carcase or article shall pay such sum as the Magistrate may consider reasonable to cover the expenses connected with its removal to a place of detention and unless that sum is paid within a specified time the animal, bird, carcase or article shall be forfeited.

[52]

Powers of arrest

52. —(1) Any authorised officer, officer of customs or police officer may arrest without warrant any person whom he sees or finds committing or attempting to commit or whom he reasonably suspects of being engaged in committing or attempting to commit any offence under this Act, if —

(a) the person refuses to furnish his name and address;

(b) the person furnishes an address out of Singapore;

(c) there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has furnished a false name or address; or

(d) the person is likely to abscond.

[16/2000]

(2) Any authorised officer, officer of customs or police officer making an arrest without warrant shall, subject to subsection (3), without unnecessary delay bring the person arrested before a Magistrate's Court.

[16/2000]

(3) No person who has been arrested by any authorised officer, officer of customs or police officer shall be released, except on his own bond or on bail or on the special order in writing of the Magistrate or the Director-General.

[53]

[16/2000]

Licence to treat, vaccinate and inoculate animal or bird

53. —(1) No person other than an authorised officer shall treat, vaccinate or inoculate any animal or bird except under and in accordance with the conditions of a licence issued by the Director-General.

[10/2002]

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[68
[10/2002]

Veterinary centres to be licensed

54. —(1) No person shall use or permit any premises to be used as a veterinary centre except under and in accordance with the conditions of a licence issued by the Director-General.

[10/2002]

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[65
[10/2002]

Licence to possess or inoculate veterinary biologics

55. —(1) No person other than an authorised officer shall —

- (a) have in his possession any veterinary biologics; or
- (b) inoculate any animal or bird with any veterinary biologics, except under and in accordance with the conditions of a licence issued by the Director-General.

[10/2002]

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[69
[10/2002]

Brands or other identification marks may be applied to animals and birds

56. —(1) The Director-General or an authorised officer may give directions to the owner or person in charge of any animal or bird to have that animal or bird branded, labelled or otherwise marked, either permanently or temporarily, for the purpose of identification.

[10/2002]

(2) The branding, labelling or marking of any animal or bird under subsection (1) shall be carried out by a person designated by the Director-General under subsection (3) and the costs thereof shall be borne by the owner or person in charge of the animal or bird.

[10/2002]

(3) The Director-General may designate any person to carry out the branding, labelling or marking of animals and birds for the purpose of this section.

[10/2002]

(4) Any person who —

- (a) fails to comply with any direction given to him under subsection (1); or
- (b) counterfeits, copies, alters, defaces or erases, any brand, label or mark applied on any animal or bird under this section, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[10/2002]

Quarantine stations

57. —(1) The Director-General may establish or designate such number of quarantine stations as he thinks necessary for the purposes of this Act.

[10/2002]

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Director-General may engage the service of any suitably qualified person to provide such number of quarantine stations as he thinks necessary and to manage any quarantine station established by him under subsection (1).

[63
[10/2002]

Prohibition against use of premises as unauthorised quarantine stations

58. —(1) No person shall use or permit any premises to be used as a quarantine station for animals or birds unless such premises have been designated by the Director-General as a quarantine station under section 57.

[10/2002]

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.

[64
[10/2002]

Regulation and control of keeping, breeding or feeding of animals and birds

59. —(1) The Minister may make rules for the following purposes:

(a) to prohibit, either absolutely or subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, the keeping, breeding or feeding in any private or public place of any animal or bird or type thereof;

(b) to regulate the keeping, breeding or feeding in any private or public place of any animal or bird or type thereof; and

(c) to provide for the impounding of stray cats or dogs found in any public place.

[10/2002]

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), rules made under that subsection may —

(a) require any person intending to keep or breed any animal or bird or type thereof in any private or public place to obtain a licence from the Director-General and to comply with the conditions of such licence;

(b) provide for the licence to be issued in respect of either or both —

(i) the animal or bird to be kept or bred; and

(ii) the place at which the animal or bird is to be kept or bred; and

(c) empower the Director-General or an authorised officer to remove or destroy or cause the removal or destruction of any animal or bird in connection with which any contravention of any rule made under this section has been committed.

[10/2002]

(3) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any animal or bird which is required by any rules made under subsection (2) (c) to be destroyed.

[10/2002]

(4) Section 80 (3) shall apply in respect of rules made under this section.

[53A

[10/2002]

Obstructing officers in execution of their duties

60. [55

[10/2002]

Suspension and revocation of licences and permits

62. —(1) The Director-General may suspend or revoke a licence or permit if he is satisfied that —

(a) the issue of the licence or permit has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation;

(b) the person to whom the licence or permit has been issued is contravening or has contravened or has failed to comply with —

(i) any of the provisions of this Act;

(ii) any condition of his licence or permit; or

(iii) any direction given to him by the Director-General or an authorised officer under this Act; or

(c) it is in the public interest to suspend or revoke the licence or permit.

[10/2002]

(2) The Director-General shall, before suspending or revoking the licence or permit under subsection (1) —

(a) give the holder of the licence or permit notice in writing of his intention to do so; and

(b) in such notice call upon the holder of the licence or permit to show cause within such time as may be specified in the notice as to why his licence or permit should not be suspended or revoked.

[10/2002]

(3) If the holder of the licence or permit —

(a) fails to show cause within the period of time given to him to do so or such extended period of time as the Director-General may allow; or

(b) fails to show sufficient cause, the Director-General shall give notice in writing to the holder of the licence or permit of the date from which the suspension or revocation of his licence or permit is to take effect.

[10/2002]

(4) Any person who is aggrieved by the suspension or revocation of his licence or permit may, within 7 days from the date of receipt of the notice informing him of the suspension or revocation, appeal in writing to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

[10/2002]

(5) Notwithstanding that any appeal under subsection (4) is pending, the suspension or revocation of a licence or permit under subsection (3) shall take effect from the date specified by the Director-General therefor, unless the Minister otherwise orders.

[69A
[10/2002]

Penalties for offences for which no expressed penalty is provided

63. Any person guilty of an offence under this Act, or any rule or order made thereunder for which no expressed penalty is provided shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[56
[10/2002]

Forfeiture

64. —(1) The court before which any person is tried for an offence under this Act may make an order for the forfeiture of any item which has been seized under the provisions of this Act if —

(a) the court is satisfied that —

(i) an offence under this Act has been committed; and

(ii) the item seized was the subject-matter, or was used in the commission, of the offence; and

(b) having regard to the circumstances of the case, the court thinks it fit to order the forfeiture of the item.

[10/2002]

(2) Where no party raises the question of forfeiture under subsection (1), the court shall consider the question on its own motion.

[10/2002]

(3) The court may make an order under subsection (1) for the forfeiture of any item which has been seized under the provisions of this Act notwithstanding that no person may have been convicted of an offence.

[10/2002]

(4) If the court, having regard to the circumstances of the case, does not think it fit to order the forfeiture of any item which has been seized under the provisions of this Act, the court shall order that the item be released to the owner thereof or to the person entitled thereto.

[10/2002]

(5) In the absence of any prosecution with regard to any item which has been seized under the provisions of this Act, the Director-General shall give the person from whom the item was seized or the owner of the item notice in writing that the item shall, on the expiration of 7 days from the date specified in the notice, be deemed to be forfeited unless a claim thereto is made before then in accordance with subsection (6).

[10/2002]

(6) A person asserting —

(a) that he is the owner of, or that he is entitled to, any item which has been seized under the provisions of this Act; and

(b) that the item is not liable to forfeiture, may, personally or by his agent authorised in writing, give written notice to the Director-General that he claims the item.

[10/2002]

(7) On receipt of a notice under subsection (6), the Director-General may direct that the item be released to the person who has given the notice or may refer the matter to a court for decision.

[10/2002]

(8) Where no claim is received on the expiration of 7 days from the date specified in the notice referred to in subsection (5), the item to which the notice relates shall be deemed to be forfeited.

[10/2002]

(9) Where the owner of any item seized under the provisions of this Act consents to its disposal, the item shall thereupon be deemed to be forfeited.

[10/2002]

(10) Any item forfeited or deemed to be forfeited under this section shall be delivered to an authorised officer and shall be disposed of in such manner as the Director-General thinks fit.

[10/2002]

(11) In this section, “item” means any animal, bird, carcase or any other article.

[57
[10/2002]

Presumptions

65. —(1) Where the owner or person in charge of a diseased animal or bird is charged with an offence under this Act in respect of the disease, he shall be presumed to have known of the existence of the disease in the animal or bird until he shows to the satisfaction of the court before which he is charged that he had no such knowledge and could not with reasonable diligence have obtained such knowledge.

(2) Where there is any doubt regarding the ownership of any animal or bird, the person found in possession of the animal or bird, or the occupier of the premises frequented by it may be presumed to be the owner thereof until the contrary is proved.

Offences committed by bodies corporate and by agents and servants

66. —(1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a body corporate, a partnership or an unincorporated association of persons, any person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director, manager, partner, secretary or other similar officer thereof, or was purporting to act in any such capacity shall be guilty of that offence unless he proves that —

(a) the offence was committed without his consent or connivance; and

(b) he had exercised all such diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as he ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of his functions in that capacity and to all the circumstances.

[10/2002]

(2) Where an offence under this Act is committed by any person acting as an agent or servant of another person, or being otherwise subject to the supervision or instruction of another person for the purposes of any employment in the course of which the offence was committed, that other person shall, without prejudice to the liability of the first-mentioned person, be liable under this Act in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had personally committed the offence if it is proved that the act which constituted the offence was committed with his consent or connivance or that it was attributable to any neglect on his part.

[69D

[10/2002]

Jurisdiction of court

67. —(1) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68), a District Court and a Magistrate's Court shall have jurisdiction to try any offence under this Act and shall have power to impose the full penalty or punishment in respect of any offence under this Act.

[10/2002]

(2) For the purpose of section 133 of the Criminal Procedure Code and notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) thereof, a Magistrate may take cognizance of an offence under this Act upon receiving a complaint in writing and signed by the Director-General or an authorised officer.

[69I

[10/2002]

Evidence

68. —(1) Subject to subsection (3) —

(a) a document or certificate purporting to be a report under the hand of the Director-General or an authorised officer upon any matter or thing in connection with the administration or enforcement of this Act or with any investigation carried out under this Act shall be admissible as evidence in any proceedings under this Act and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein; and

(b) a certificate of an authorised examiner stating that he has examined any animal or bird or any other matter and stating the result of his examination shall be admissible as evidence in any proceedings for an offence under this Act and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein and of the correctness of the result of the examination.

[10/2002]

(2) For the purposes of this section, a document purporting to be a certificate referred to in subsection (1) on its production by the prosecution shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed to be such a certificate.

[10/2002]

(3) A certificate referred to in subsection (1) shall not be received in evidence in pursuance of that subsection unless the person charged has been given —

(a) a copy of the certificate; and

(b) notice of the intention of the prosecution to produce the certificate as evidence in the proceedings, not less than 10 clear days before the date of commencement of the proceedings.

[10/2002]

(4) Where a certificate of the Director-General, an authorised officer or an authorised examiner is admitted in evidence under subsection (1), the person charged may require the Director-General, authorised officer or authorised examiner to be called as a witness for the prosecution and be cross-examined as if he had given evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

[69J

[10/2002]

Composition of offences

69. —(1) The Director-General or any officer authorised in writing in that behalf by the Authority may, in his discretion, compound any offence under this Act which is prescribed as a compoundable offence by collecting from a person reasonably suspected of having committed the offence a sum not exceeding $1,000.

[10/2002]

(2) On payment of such sum, no further proceedings shall be taken against such person in respect of the offence.

[69K

[10/2002]

Fees, etc., payable to Authority

70. All fees, charges, composition fines and moneys collected under this Act shall be paid to the Authority.

[59A

[16/2000]

Expenses

71. Any expense incurred by an authorised officer or other officer in the exercise of the powers conferred on him by this Act or any rule, order or direction made or given thereunder shall be charged against the owner, consignor, consignee or importer, as the case may be, of the animal, bird, carcase, article, building or conveyance concerned and may be recovered as a civil debt.

[60

[16/2000]

Action to be at risk and expense of owner

72. —(1) Any action taken under the provisions of this Act or of any rule, order or direction made or given thereunder in respect of any animal, bird, carcase, article, building or conveyance shall be at the risk of the owner thereof.

(2) No liability shall attach to the Authority or to any officer thereof in respect of any expense, loss, damage or delay arising in or from the lawful exercise of the powers under this Act.

[16/2000]

Powers of Director-General and authorised officer in cases of non-compliance with Act or any direction or order

73. —(1) If a person to whom any of the provisions of this Act applies or to whom any direction or order is given under this Act fails to comply with such provision, direction or order, then, without prejudice to any proceedings that may be instituted against such person for such non-compliance, the Director-General or an authorised officer may perform any act or take any measure as is required by the provision, direction or order to be performed or taken and recover any costs and expenses reasonably incurred by him from that person.

[10/2002]

(2) In exercising the powers conferred by subsection (1), the Director-General or authorised officer may, without warrant, enter any premises, vehicle, ship or aircraft and, if the circumstances so warrant, may use such force as may be necessary to effect such entry.

[69B
[10/2002]

Power to require production of documents, etc.

74. —(1) For the purpose of discharging his functions and duties under this Act, the Director-General or an authorised officer may at any time require any person —

(a) to produce to the Director-General or authorised officer for inspection or for the purpose of obtaining copies or extracts, or to provide the Director-General or authorised officer with copies or extracts of, any book, shipping bill, bill of lading or other document or record that the Director-General or authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds to contain any information relevant to the administration or enforcement of this Act; or

(b) to furnish any information as the Director-General or authorised officer may reasonably require.

[10/2002]

(2) The Director-General or an authorised officer may record any information furnished by any person under subsection (1) (b) as a statement which shall be admissible as evidence in any proceedings in connection with any offence under this Act.

[10/2002]

(3) Any person who fails to comply with any requirement made by the Director-General or an authorised officer under subsection (1) (a) or (b) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[69C
[10/2002]

Form and authentication of notices, orders and other documents

75. —(1) All notices, orders and other documents of whatsoever nature which the Director-General is empowered to give by this Act may be in such form as the Director-General may determine, and may be given by any authorised officer.

[10/2002]

(2) Where any such notice, order or document requires authentication —

(a) the signature of the Director-General or an authorised officer; or

(b) an official facsimile of such signature, appended thereto shall be sufficient authentication.

[69E
[10/2002]

Inaccuracies in documents

76. —(1) No misnomer or inaccurate description of any person, animal, bird, premises, building, street, place, vehicle, aircraft, ship or other conveyance named or described in any notice, order or document prepared, issued or served under or for the purposes of this Act shall in any way affect the operation of this Act as respects that person, animal, bird, premises, building, street, place, vehicle, aircraft, ship or other conveyance if that person, animal, bird, premises, building, street, place, vehicle, aircraft, ship or other conveyance is so designated in the notice, order or document as to be identifiable.

[10/2002]

(2) No proceedings taken under or by virtue of this Act shall be invalid for want of form.

[69F
[10/2002]

Service of documents

77. —(1) Any notice, order or document required or authorised by this Act to be served on any person, and any summons issued by a court against any person in connection with any offence under this Act may be served on the person —

(a) by delivering it to the person or to some adult member or employee of his family or household at his usual or last known place of residence;

(b) by leaving it at his usual or last known place of residence or business in an envelope addressed to the person;

(c) by sending it by registered post addressed to the person at his usual or last known place of residence or business; or

(d) in the case of an incorporated company, a partnership or a body of persons —

(i) by delivering it to the secretary or other like officer of the company, partnership or body of persons at its registered office or principal place of business; or

(ii) by sending it by registered post addressed to the company, partnership or body of persons at its registered office or principal place of business.

[10/2002]

(2) Any notice, order, document or summons sent by registered post to any person in accordance with subsection (1) shall be deemed to be duly served on the person at the time when the notice, order, document or summons, as the case may be, would in the ordinary course of post be delivered and, in proving service of the notice, order, document or summons, it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the same was properly addressed, stamped and posted by registered post.

[10/2002]

(3) Any notice, order or document required or authorised by this Act to be served on the owner or occupier of any premises or any summons issued by a court against any such owner or occupier in connection with any offence under this Act may be served by delivering it or a true copy thereof to some adult person on the premises or, if there is no such person on the premises to whom it can with reasonable diligence be delivered, by affixing the notice, order, document or summons to some conspicuous part of the premises.

[10/2002]

(4) Any notice, order or document required or authorised by this Act to be served on the owner or occupier of any premises or any summons issued by a court against any such owner or occupier in connection with any offence under this Act shall be deemed to be properly addressed if addressed by the description of the owner or occupier of the premises without further name or description.

[69G
[10/2002]

Protection from liability

78. No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Authority, the Director-General or any authorised officer, police officer, officer of customs or any other person acting under the direction of the Authority or Director-General for anything which is in good faith done in the execution or purported execution of this Act.

[69H
[10/2002]

Exemption

79. The Director-General may, subject to any general or special directions of the Minister, exempt any person, premises, animal or bird or any class of persons, premises, animals or birds from any of the provisions of this Act.

[69L
[10/2002]

Rules

80. —(1) The Minister may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act and for any matter which is required under this Act to be prescribed.

[10/2002]

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Minister may make rules —

(a) to provide for the designation of an authorised examiner, the conditions to be complied with by an authorised examiner and the suspension or revocation of any such designation;

(b) to provide for the manner in which the quarantining, examination, treatment and certification of animals and birds are to be carried out;

(c) to regulate the import, export and transhipment of animals, birds or carcasses;

(d) to provide for the prevention of the introduction and spread and for the control and eradication of diseases of animals and birds;

(e) to provide for the cleansing or disinfection of buildings, vehicles, aircraft or ships in which diseased animals, birds or carcasses have been kept or carried;

(f) to provide for the disinfection of persons and the disinfection and treatment of animals, birds or articles that have been in contact with diseased animals, birds or carcasses;

(g) to regulate and control the sale, marketing and distribution of animals and birds and their products;

(h) to provide for the licensing, control, supervision and inspection of places in which animals or birds are or may be kept in captivity for sale, export, exhibition, production, or any other purpose;

- (i) to provide for the inspection of premises subject to this Act and of vehicles, aircraft or ships used for the carriage of animals and birds;
- (j) to provide for the control of pollution caused by animals and the imposition of fees and charges for the purpose of such control together with the time, place and manner of collection;
- (k) to provide for the control and improvement of animal or bird production in respect of breeding, nutrition, health, management, husbandry and method of production;
- (l) to provide for the supply, collection and compilation of information and statistics of animals and birds and their products;
- (m) to provide for the establishment and designation of quarantine stations;
- (n) to regulate the management and maintenance of quarantine stations and veterinary centres;
- (o) to prescribe the fees to be charged for the purposes of this Act; and
- (p) to prescribe the offences which may be compounded under section 69 and the method and procedure by which such offences may be compounded.

[10/2002]

(3) The Minister may, in making any rules, provide that any contravention of, or failure or neglect to comply with, any provision of the rules or any directive issued by the Director-General pursuant to the rules shall be an offence punishable with a fine not exceeding $10,000 or with imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or with both.

[10/2002]

(4) All rules made under this Act shall be presented to Parliament as soon as possible after publication in the Gazette.
