General Part

Chapter 1

General Provisions

§ 1. Scope of application of General Part of Penal Code

(1) The provisions of the General Part of the Penal Code apply to the imposition of punishments for offences provided for in the Special Part of this Code and other Acts.

(2) For the purposes of this Chapter, "penal law" means this Code or any other Act which prescribes a punishment for an offence.

§ 2. Basis for punishment

(1) No one shall be convicted or punished for an act which was not an offence pursuant to the law applicable at the time of the commission of the act.

(2) A person shall be punished for an act if the act comprises the necessary elements of an offence, is unlawful and the person is guilty of the commission of the offence.

(3) No one shall be punished more than once for the same offence, regardless of whether the punishment is imposed in Estonia or in another state.

(4) An act shall not be declared to be an offence by analogy in law.

§ 3. Types of offences

(1) An offence is a punishable act provided for in this Code or another Act.

(2) Offences are criminal offences and misdemeanours.

(3) A criminal offence is an offence which is provided for in this Code and the principal punishment prescribed for which in the case of natural persons is a pecuniary punishment or imprisonment and in the case of legal persons, a pecuniary punishment or compulsory dissolution.

(4) A misdemeanour is an offence which is provided for in this Code or another Act and the principal punishment prescribed for which is a fine or detention.

(5) If a person commits an act which comprises the necessary elements of both a misdemeanour and a criminal offence, the person shall be punished only for the criminal offence. If a punishment is not imposed for the criminal offence, the same act may be punished for the misdemeanour.

§ 4. Degrees of criminal offences

(1) Criminal offences are criminal offences in the first and in the second degree.

(2) A criminal offence in the first degree is an offence the maximum punishment prescribed for which in this Code is imprisonment for a term of more than five years, life imprisonment or compulsory dissolution.

(3) A criminal offence in the second degree is an offence the punishment prescribed for which in this Code is imprisonment for a term of up to five years or a pecuniary punishment.

(4) The mitigation or aggravation of a punishment on the basis of the provisions of the General Part of this Code shall not alter the degree of a criminal offence.

§ 5. Temporal applicability of penal law

(1) A punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the law in force at the time of commission of the act.

(2) An Act which precludes the punishability of an act, mitigates a punishment or otherwise alleviates the situation of a person shall have retroactive effect.

(3) An Act which declares an act as punishable, aggravates a punishment or otherwise exacerbates the situation of a person shall not have retroactive effect.

(4) Offences against humanity and war crimes shall be punishable regardless of the time of commission of the offence.

§ 6. Territorial applicability of penal law

(1) The penal law of Estonia applies to acts committed within the territory of Estonia.

(2) The penal law of Estonia applies to acts committed on board of or against ships or aircraft registered in Estonia, regardless of the location of the ship or aircraft at the time of commission of the offence or the penal law of the country where the offence is committed.

§ 7. Applicability of penal law by reason of person concerned

The penal law of Estonia applies to an act committed outside the territory of Estonia if such act constitutes a criminal offence pursuant to the penal law of Estonia and is punishable at the place of commission of the act, or if no penal power is applicable at the place of commission of the act and if:

1) the act is committed against a citizen of Estonia or a legal person registered in Estonia;

2) the offender is a citizen of Estonia at the time of commission of the act or becomes a citizen of Estonia after the commission of the act, or if the offender is an alien who has been detained in Estonia and is not extradited.

(2) The penal law of Estonia applies to an act committed outside the territory of Estonia if such act constitutes a criminal offence pursuant to the penal law of Estonia and the offender is a member of the Defence Forces performing his or her duties.

(19.05.2004 entered into force 01.07.2004 - RT I 2004, 46, 329)

§ 8. Applicability of penal law to acts against internationally protected legal rights

Regardless of the law of the place of commission of an act, the penal law of Estonia shall apply to an act committed outside the territory of Estonia if the punishability of the act arises from an international agreement binding on Estonia.

§ 9. Applicability of penal law to acts against legal rights of Estonia

Regardless of the law of the place of commission of an act, the penal law of Estonia applies to acts committed outside the territory of Estonia if according to the penal law of Estonia the act is a criminal offence in the first degree and if such act:

- 1) causes damage to the life or health of the population of Estonia;
- 2) interferes with the exercise of state authority or the defence capability of Estonia, or
- 3) causes damage to the environment.

§ 10. Time of commission of act

An act is deemed to be committed at the time when the person acted or was legally required to act. The time of occurrence of the consequences shall not be taken into consideration.

§ 11. Place of commission of act

(1) An act is deemed to be committed at the place where:

- 1) the person acted;
- 2) the person was legally required to act;
- 3) the consequence which constitutes a necessary element of the offence occurred, or
- 4) according to the assumption of the person, the consequence which constitutes a necessary element of the offence should have occurred.

(2) Complicity is deemed to be committed at the place where:

- 1) the principal offender committed the criminal offence;
- 2) the accomplice acted;
- 3) the accomplice was legally required to act, or
- 4) according to the assumption of the accomplice, the consequence which constitutes a necessary element of the offence should have occurred.

(3) If an accomplice to a criminal offence committed in a foreign state commits an act in the territory of Estonia and pursuant to the penal law of Estonia such act is punishable and the act of the principal offender is punishable at the place of commission of the act or no penal power is applicable at the place of commission of the act, the penal law of Estonia applies to the accomplice.

Chapter 2

Offence

Division 1

Necessary Elements of Offence

§ 12. Necessary elements of offence

(1) Necessary elements of an offence are provided for in the description of a punishable act provided for in the Special Part of this Code or another Act.

(2) The objective elements necessary to constitute an offence are the acts or omissions described by law and, in the cases provided by law, the consequences which are in a causal relation to such acts or omissions.

(3) The subjective elements necessary to constitute an offence are intent or negligence. Law may prescribe a motive, aim or any other subjective element necessary to constitute an offence.

§ 13. Responsibility for omission

(1) A person shall be held responsible for an omission if the person was legally required to prevent a consequence described by law.

(2) In the case of an offence through omission, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code.

§ 14. Liability of legal persons

(1) In the cases provided by law, a legal person shall be held responsible for an act which is committed by a body or senior official thereof in the interest of the legal person.

(2) Prosecution of a legal person does not preclude prosecution of the natural person who committed the offence.

(3) The provisions of this Act do not apply to the state, local governments or to legal persons in public law.

§ 15. Intentional act and negligent act

(1) Only intentional acts shall be punishable as criminal offences unless a punishment for a negligent act is provided by this Code.

(2) An act is also deemed to be intentional if it comprises the necessary elements of an offence in the case of which intent is presumed with regard to the act, and negligence is deemed to be sufficient with regard to grave consequences.

(3) Intentional and negligent acts are both punishable as misdemeanours.

§ 16. Intent

(1) Intent is deliberate intent, direct intent or indirect intent.

(2) A person is deemed to have committed an act with deliberate intent if the aim of the person is to create circumstances which belong to the necessary elements of an offence and is aware that such circumstances occur or if he or she at least foresees the occurrence of such circumstances. A person is also deemed to have committed an act with deliberate intent if the person assumes that the circumstances which constitute the necessary elements of an offence are an essential prerequisite for the achievement of the aim.

(3) A person is deemed to have committed an act with direct intent if the person knowingly creates circumstances which belong to the necessary elements of an offence and wants or at least tacitly accepts the creation of the circumstances.

(4) A person is deemed to have committed an act with indirect intent if the person foresees the occurrence of circumstances which constitute the necessary elements of an offence and tacitly accepts that such circumstance may occur.

§ 17. Ignorance of circumstances which constitute necessary elements of offence

(1) A person who at the time of commission of an act is unaware that a circumstance which constitutes a necessary element of an offence is not deemed to have committed the act intentionally. In such case the person shall be held liable for an offence committed through negligence in the cases provided by law.

(2) A person who at the time of commission of an act erroneously assumes circumstances which would constitute the necessary elements of an offence for which a more lenient punishment is prescribed, shall be liable for an intentional offence the commission of which the person intended.

(3) Ignorance of law shall not preclude intent or negligence.

§ 18. Negligence

(1) Negligence is recklessness or carelessness.

(2) A person is deemed to have committed an act through recklessness if the person foresees the occurrence of circumstances which constitute the necessary elements of an offence but, due to inattentiveness or irresponsibility, seeks to avoid the occurrence of such circumstances.

(3) A person is deemed to have committed an act through carelessness if the person is unaware of the occurrence of a circumstance which constitutes a necessary element of an offence but should have foreseen the occurrence of the circumstance in the case of attentive and conscientious performance.

§ 19. Liability for grave consequences

A person shall be liable for grave consequences provided by law if he or she causes the consequences with at least negligence.

§ 20. Offender

Offenders are principal offenders and accomplices.

§ 21. Principal offender

(1) Principal offender is a person who commits an offence unaided or by taking advantage of another person.

(2) If at least two persons agree to commit an offence jointly, each of them shall be held liable as a principal offender (joint principal offenders). An offence is deemed to be a joint offence also if an act committed by several persons jointly and in agreement comprises the necessary elements of an offence.

§ 22. Accomplice

(1) Accomplices are abettors and aiders.

(2) An abettor is a person who intentionally induces another person to commit an intentional unlawful act.

(3) An aider is a person who intentionally provides physical, material or moral assistance to an intentional unlawful act of another person.

(4) Unless otherwise provided by § 24 of this Code, a punishment shall be imposed on an accomplice pursuant to the same provision of law which prescribes the liability of the principal offender.

(5) In the case of an aider, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code.

§ 23. Commission of misdemeanour

In the case of a misdemeanour, only the commission thereof is punishable.

§ 24. Special personal characteristics

(1) Special personal characteristics are circumstances which constitute a necessary element of an offence prescribed in the Special Part of this Code or another Act and which describe the personal characteristics, aims or motives of an offender.

(2) If an accomplice lacks the specific personal characteristics which pursuant to law constitute prerequisites for the liability of the principal offender, the provisions of § 60 of this Code shall apply to the accomplice.

(3) Special personal characteristics provided by law which aggravate, mitigate or preclude liability apply only with regard to an offender with such special personal characteristics.

§ 25. Attempt

(1) An attempt is an intentional act the purpose of which is to commit an offence.

(2) An attempt is deemed to have commenced at the moment when the person, according to the person's understanding of the act, directly commences the commission of the offence.

(3) If an act is committed by taking advantage of another person, the attempt is deemed to have commenced at the moment when the person loses control over the events or when the intermediary directly commences the commission of the offence according to the person's understanding of the act.

(4) In the case of a joint offence, the attempt is deemed to have commenced at the moment when at least one of the persons directly commences the commission of the offence according to the agreement of the persons.

(5) In the case of an omission, the attempt is deemed to have commenced at the moment when the person fails to perform an act which is necessary for the prevention of the consequences which constitute the necessary elements of an offence.

(6) In the case of an attempt, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code.

§ 26. Impossible attempt

(1) An attempt is impossible if it cannot be completed due to the unsuitability of the object or subject of the offence or due to the unsuitability of the object or method used to commit the offence.

(2) The court may release a person from punishment or apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code if due to his or her mental infirmity the person does not understand that the attempt is impossible.

Division 2

Preclusion of Unlawfulness

§ 27. Unlawful act

An act is unlawful if it comprises the necessary elements of an offence prescribed by law and the unlawfulness of the act is not precluded by this Code, another Act, international convention or international customary law.

§ 28. Self-defence

(1) An act is not unlawful if the person combats a direct or immediate unlawful attack against the legal rights of the person or of another person by violating the legal rights of the attacker and without exceeding the limits of self-defence.

(2) A person is deemed to have exceeded the limits of self-defence if the person with deliberate or direct intent carries out self-defence by means which are evidently incongruous with the danger arising from the attack or if the person with deliberate or direct intent causes evidently excessive damage to the attacker.

(3) An opportunity to avoid an attack or to request assistance from another person shall not preclude the right to self-defence.

§ 29. Necessity

An act is not unlawful if the person commits the act in order to avert a direct or immediate danger to the legal rights of the person or of another person, and if the means chosen by the person are necessary for the aversion of the danger and the interest protected is evidently of higher importance than the interest subject to damage. In considering interests, the importance of the legal rights, the degree of the danger by which they are threatened and the danger arising from the act shall be taken into account.

§ 30. Conflict of obligations

An act which violates a legal obligation is not unlawful if the person is to perform several legal obligations simultaneously and it is impossible to perform all of them but the person does everything in his or her power to perform the obligation which is at least as important as the obligation violated against.

§ 31. Error concerning circumstance which precludes unlawfulness

(1) An intentional act is not unlawful if at the time of commission of the act the person erroneously assumes circumstances which would preclude the unlawfulness of the act. In such case, the person shall be punished for an offence committed through negligence in the cases provided by law.

(2) A person who at the time of commission of an act is unaware of the circumstances which objectively preclude the unlawfulness of the act shall be held liable for an attempt. In such case, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code.

Division 3

Guilt

§ 32. Principle of guilt

(1) A person shall be punished for an unlawful act only if the person is guilty of the commission of the act. A person is guilty of the commission of an act if the person is capable of guilt and there are no circumstances which would preclude guilt pursuant to the provisions of this Division.

(2) An offender shall be punished according to the guilt of the offender, regardless of the guilt of other offenders.

§ 33. Guilt capacity

A person is capable of guilt if at the time of commission of the act he or she is mentally capable and at least 14 years of age.

§ 34. Mental capacity

A person is not mentally capable if at the time of commission of an act he or she is incapable of understanding the unlawfulness of the act or incapable to act according to such understanding due to:

- 1) a mental illness;
- 2) a temporary severe mental disorder;
- 3) mental disability;
- 4) feeble-mindedness, or
- 5) any other severe mental disorder.

§ 35. Diminished mental capacity

If the capacity of a person to understand the unlawfulness of his or her act or to act according to such understanding is substantially diminished due to one of the reasons specified in § 34 of this Code, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Act.

§ 36. State of intoxication

A state of intoxication caused intentionally or through negligence shall not preclude guilt.

§ 37. Guilt capacity of legal persons

Legal persons with passive legal capacity are capable of guilt.

§ 38. Absence of guilt in case of negligence

A person who commits an act through negligence is deemed to have acted without guilt if the person due to his or her mental or physical abilities is incapable of understanding what is expected of him or her or is incapable to act according to such understanding.

§ 39. Error as to unlawfulness of act

(1) A person is deemed to have acted without guilt if he or she is incapable of understanding the unlawfulness of his or her act and cannot avoid the error.

(2) If an offender is able to avoid the error, the court may apply the provisions of § 60 of this Code.

§ 40. Abandonment of attempt

(1) A person is released from guilt if the person voluntarily abandons the attempt in one of the cases provided for in § 41, 42 or 43 of this Code.

(2) Voluntary abandonment of attempt shall not release from guilt for an act which comprises the necessary elements of a completed offence.

(3) A person is deemed to have abandoned an attempt voluntarily if according to the person's understanding of the act the consequences of the act may still occur but the person decides to abandon the attempt regardless of circumstances beyond the person's intention.

§ 41. Abandonment of incomplete attempt

(1) A principal offender is deemed to have abandoned an incomplete attempt if the principal offender interrupts the completion of the offence.

(2) An attempt is incomplete if the person has not yet performed all that according to the person's understanding of the act is necessary for the completion of the offence.

§ 42. Abandonment of completed attempt

(1) A principal offender is deemed to have abandoned a complete attempt if the principal offender prevents the occurrence of the consequences of the offence. If a complete attempt is not sufficient for the full commission of the act, the principal offender is deemed to have abandoned the attempt if the principal offender earnestly endeavours to prevent the occurrence of the consequences of the offence.

(2) An attempt is complete if the person according to the person's understanding of the act has performed everything in the person's power to complete the offence.

§ 43. Abandonment of attempt in case of several offenders

If several offenders participate in an attempt, the person who prevents the occurrence of the consequences of the offence is deemed to have abandoned the attempt. If the consequences occur or do not occur regardless of the conduct of an offender, the offender is deemed to have abandoned the attempt if the offender earnestly endeavours to prevent the occurrence of the consequences.

Chapter 3

Types and Terms of Punishments

Division 1

Principal Punishments Imposed for Criminal Offences

§ 44. Pecuniary punishment

(1) For a criminal offence, the court may impose a pecuniary punishment of 30 to 500 daily rates.

(2) The court shall calculate the daily rate of a pecuniary punishment on the basis of the average daily income of the convicted offender. The court may reduce the daily rate due to special circumstances, or increase the rate on the basis of the standard of living of the convicted offender. The daily rate applied shall not be less than the minimum daily rate. The minimum daily rate shall be fifty kroons.

(3) Average daily income shall be calculated on the basis of the income subject to income tax received by the convicted offender during the year immediately preceding the year in which criminal proceedings were commenced against the convicted offender or, if the data pertaining to such year are not available, during the year preceding such year, less the income tax.

(4) Daily rates shall be calculated in full kroons.

(5) If at the time of commission of an act, the person is less than 18 years of age, the court may impose a pecuniary punishment of thirty up to two hundred and fifty daily rates. A pecuniary punishment shall not be imposed on a person of less than 18 years of age if he or she does not have any independent income.

(6) A pecuniary punishment may be imposed as a supplementary punishment together with imprisonment unless imprisonment has been substituted by community service.

(7) A pecuniary punishment shall not be imposed as a supplementary punishment together with a fine to the extent of assets.

(8) In case of a legal person, the court may impose a pecuniary punishment of fifty thousand to two hundred and fifty million kroons on the legal person. A pecuniary punishment may be imposed on a legal person also as a supplementary punishment together with compulsory dissolution.

(18.09.2002 entered into force 24.10.2002 - RT I 2002, 82, 480)

§ 45. Imprisonment

(1) For a criminal offence, the court may impose imprisonment for a term of thirty days to twenty years, or life imprisonment.

(2) Imprisonment for a term of more than ten years or life imprisonment shall not be imposed on a person who at the time of commission of the criminal offence is less than 18 years of age.

§ 46. Compulsory dissolution of legal person

A court may impose the compulsory dissolution on a legal person who has committed a criminal offence if commission of criminal offences has become part of the activities of the legal person.

Division 2

Principal Punishments Imposed for Misdemeanours

§ 47. Fine

(1) For a misdemeanour, a court or an extra-judicial body may impose a fine of three up to three hundred fine units. A fine unit is the base amount of a fine and is equal to sixty kroons.

(2) A court or an extra-judicial body may impose a fine of five hundred kroons up to five hundred thousand kroons on a legal person who commits a misdemeanour.

(24.01.2007 entered into force 15.03.2007 - RT I 2007, 13, 69)

(3) (Repealed -24.01.2007 entered into force 15.03.2007 - RT I 2007, 13, 69)

§ 48. Detention

For a misdemeanour, a court may impose detention for a term of up to thirty days.

Division 3

Supplementary Punishments for Offences Imposed on Natural Persons

(16.06.2005 entered into force 01.10.2005 - RT I 2005, 40, 311)

§ 49. Occupational ban

A court may deprive a convicted offender of the right to work in a certain position or operate in a certain area of activity for up to three years if the person is convicted of a criminal offence relating to abuse of professional or official status or violation of official duties.

§ 50. Deprivation of driving privileges

(1) As a supplementary punishment, an offender or convicted offender may be deprived of driving privileges for an offence relating to violation of the safe traffic or of rules of operation of a motor vehicle, aircraft, water craft, tram or rolling stock:

1) for up to three years by a court in the case of a criminal offence;

2) for up to one year by a court or body conducting the extra-judicial proceedings in the case of a misdemeanour in cases provided by the law.

(16.06.2005 entered into force 01.10.2005 - RT I 2005, 40, 311)

(2) A person shall not be deprived of the right to drive a motor vehicle if he or she uses the motor vehicle due to disability, unless he or she drives the motor vehicle in a state of intoxication.

§ 51. Deprivation of right to hold weapons or ammunition

A court may deprive a convicted offender for up to five years of the right to acquire, store, supply or carry weapons or ammunition if the person is convicted of a criminal offence relating to holding or use of weapons or ammunition.

§ 52. Deprivation of hunting or fishing rights

A court may deprive a convicted offender for up to three years of hunting or fishing rights if the person is convicted of a criminal offence relating to violation of hunting or fishing rights.

§ 53. Fine to the extent of assets

(1) If a court convicts a person of a criminal offence and imposes imprisonment for a term of more than three years or life imprisonment, the court may, in the cases provided by law, impose a supplementary punishment according to which the convicted offender is to pay an amount up to the extent of the total value of all the assets of the convicted offender.

(13.12.2006 entered into force 01.02.2007 - RT I 2007, 2, 7)

(2) A fine to the extent of assets may be imposed as a supplementary punishment for a criminal offence committed before 1 February 2007.

(13.12.2006 entered into force 01.02.2007 - RT I 2007, 2, 7)

§ 54. Expulsion

(1) If a court convicts a citizen of a foreign state of a criminal offence in the first degree and imposes imprisonment, the court may impose expulsion with prohibition on entry within ten years as supplementary punishment on the convicted offender. If the spouse or a minor child of the convicted person lives with him or her in the same family in Estonia on a legal basis, the court in its judgment shall provide reasons for imposition of expulsion.

(2) Expulsion shall not be imposed on a convicted citizen of a foreign state who at the time of commission of the criminal offence was less than 18 years of age.

§ 55. Term of supplementary punishment

(1) If a supplementary punishment provided for in §§ 49–52 of this Code is imposed together with detention or imprisonment, the supplementary punishment shall extend to the whole term of the principal punishment and additionally to the term determined by the court judgment or the decision of the body conducting extra-judicial proceedings.

(16.06.2005 entered into force 01.10.2005 - RT I 2005, 40, 311)

(2) The term for a prohibition on entry supplementing expulsion provided for in § 54 of this Code shall be calculated as of the expulsion of the convicted offender.

Chapter 4

Imposition of Punishment

Division 1

Bases for Imposition of Punishments

§ 56. Basis for punishment

(1) Punishment shall be based on the guilt of the person. In imposition of a punishment, a court or an extra-judicial body shall take into consideration the mitigating and aggravating circumstances, the possibility to influence the offender not to commit offences in the future, and the interests of the protection of public order.

(17.12.2003 entered into force 01.01.2004 - RT I 2003, 83, 557)

(2) Imprisonment may be imposed only on the condition that the aims of the punishment cannot be achieved by a less onerous punishment. If a section of the Special Part of this Code prescribes, in addition to imprisonment, less onerous punishments, the court in its judgment shall provide the reasons for the imposition of imprisonment.

§ 57. Mitigating circumstances

(1) Mitigating circumstances are:

- 1) prevention of harmful consequences of the offence, and provision of assistance to the victim immediately after the commission of the offence;
- 2) voluntary compensation for damage;
- 3) appearance for voluntary confession, sincere remorse, or active assistance in detection of the offence;
- 4) commission of the offence due to a difficult personal situation;
- 5) commission of the offence under threat or duress, or due to service, financial or family-related dependent relationship;
- 6) commission of the offence in a highly provoked state caused by unlawful behaviour;
- 7) commission of the offence by a pregnant woman or a person in an advanced age;
- 8) commission of the offence in excess of the limits of self-defence.
- 9) conciliation with the victim.

(17.01.2007 entered into force 18.02.2007 - RT I 2007, 11, 51)

(2) Circumstances not specified in subsection (1) of this section may be taken into consideration in imposition of a punishment.

§ 58. Aggravating circumstances

Aggravating circumstances are:

- 1) self interest or other base motives;
- 2) commission of the offence with peculiar cruelty, or degradation of the victim;
- 3) commission of the offence knowingly against a person who is less than 18 years of age, pregnant, in an advanced age, in need of assistance or has a severe mental disorder;
- 4) commission of the offence against a person who is in a service, financial or family-related dependent relationship with the offender;
- 5) commission of the offence during a state of emergency or state of war;
- 6) commission of the offence by taking advantage of a public accident or natural disaster;
- 7) commission of the offence in a manner which is dangerous to the public;
- 8) causing of serious consequences;

- 9) commission of the offence in order to facilitate or conceal another offence;
- 10) commission of the offence by a group;
- 11) taking advantage of an official uniform or badge in order to facilitate commission of the offence.

§ 59. Prohibition to repeatedly consider mitigating or aggravating circumstances

The mitigating or aggravating circumstances provided for in §§ 57 and 58 of this Code shall not be considered in imposition of a punishment if they are described by law as the necessary elements of an offence.

§ 60. Mitigation of punishment in cases provided by law

- (1) In the cases specified in the General Part of this Code, a court may mitigate the punishment of a person pursuant to the procedure provided for in subsections (2)–(4) of this section.
- (2) The maximum rate of a mitigated punishment shall not exceed two-thirds of the maximum rate of the punishment provided by law.
- (3) The minimum rate of a mitigated punishment shall be the minimum rate of the corresponding type of punishment provided for in the General Part of this Code.
- (4) If the Special Part of this Code prescribes life imprisonment as a punishment for a criminal offence, an imprisonment for a term of not less than three years shall be imposed in mitigation of the punishment.

§ 61. Imposition of less onerous punishment than minimum term or rate

- (1) Taking into consideration special circumstances, a court or an extra-judicial body may impose a less onerous punishment than the minimum term or rate provided by law.
- (2) If the minimum term of imprisonment provided for in the Special Part of this Code is at least five years, imprisonment shall not be imposed for a term of less than one year.

§ 62. Imposition of principal and supplementary punishments

One principal punishment and one or several supplementary punishments may be imposed for one offence.

§ 63. Imposition of principal punishment for several offences

- (1) If a person commits an act which comprises the necessary elements of several offences, one punishment shall be imposed on the person on the basis of the provision of law which prescribes the most onerous punishment.
- (2) If a person commits several acts which have the necessary elements of several criminal offences and he or she has not been previously punished for any of such offences, a punishment shall be imposed separately for each offence and aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to § 64 of this Code.
- (3) If a person commits several acts which have the necessary elements of several misdemeanours, a punishment shall be imposed separately for each misdemeanour.

(12.06.2002 entered into force 01.09.2002 - RT I 2002, 56, 350)

§ 64. Imposition of aggregate punishment

- (1) In the case of principal punishments of the same type, the aggregate punishment shall be imposed by increasing the most onerous of the individual punishments imposed or by considering a lesser punishment to be imposed by imposition of the most onerous one.
- (2) If one of the principal punishments imposed is a pecuniary punishment, it shall be executed independently, except in the case provided for in subsection (4) of this section.
- (3) An aggregate punishment shall not exceed the sum of the individual punishments imposed nor the maximum rate of the most onerous punishment provided for in the corresponding section of the Special Part of this Code.
- (4) If life imprisonment is one of the punishments imposed, it shall be imposed as the aggregate punishment.
- (5) Supplementary punishments of different types shall be executed independently.

(12.06.2002 entered into force 01.09.2002 - RT I 2002, 56, 350)

§ 65. Subsequent imposition of aggregate punishment

- (1) If, after the pronouncement of a conviction, it is ascertained that the convicted offender has committed another criminal offence prior to the pronouncement of the conviction, aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the procedure provided for in § 64 of this Code. Punishment served in part or in full pursuant to the previous conviction shall be deducted from the aggregate punishment.
- (2) If a convicted offender commits another criminal offence after the pronouncement of the conviction but before the sentence is served in full, the unserved part of the sentence imposed by the previous judgment shall be added to the punishment imposed for the new offence in accordance with the provisions of 64 (2), (4) and (5) of this Code. In such case, the aggregate punishment shall not exceed the maximum term of the given type of punishment.

(12.06.2002 entered into force 01.09.2002 - RT I 2002, 56, 350)

§ 66. Serving of sentence in parts

(1) If a court imposes a pecuniary punishment, detention, or imprisonment for a term of up to six months, the court, taking into consideration the situation of the family and the professional activities of the convicted offender and his or her state of health, may order the pecuniary punishment to be paid in instalments or the punishment to be borne in parts. The court shall determine the duration of the imprisonment or detention to be borne consecutively, or the amounts of the instalments of the pecuniary punishment. The duration of an imprisonment or detention to be borne consecutively shall be at least two days.

(2) A court or an extra-judicial body may, with good reason, order a fine payable in instalments.

(3) The term for the execution of a fine payable in instalments or an imprisonment or detention to be borne in parts shall not exceed one year.

§ 67. Calculation of terms of imprisonment and detention

(1) A term of imprisonment shall be calculated in years, months and days. A term of detention shall be calculated in days.

(2) The term of a supplementary imprisonment or detention shall be calculated in years and months.

§ 68. Consideration of provisional custody and detention

(1) Provisional custody, including the time spent in provisional arrest and arrest for surrender, shall be included in the term of a punishment. One day of provisional custody corresponds to one day of imprisonment or three daily rates of a pecuniary punishment.

(28.06.2004 entered into force 01.07.2004 - RT I 2004, 54, 387)

(2) If a person is held in custody in the course of misdemeanour proceedings, it shall be included in the term of a punishment. Twenty-four hours of custody correspond to one day of detention or to ten fine units.

(12.06.2002 entered into force 01.09.2002 - RT I 2002, 56, 350)

Division 2

Substitution of Punishment by Community Service

§ 69. Community service

(1) If a court imposes imprisonment of up to two years, the court may substitute the imprisonment by community service. One day of imprisonment corresponds to two hours of community service. Imprisonment shall be substituted by community service only with the consent of the convicted offender.

(17.12.2003 entered into force 01.01.2004 - RT I 2003, 83, 557)

(2) The duration of community service shall not exceed 8 hours a day. If a convicted offender performs community service during free time from his or her other work or studies, the duration of community service shall not exceed four hours a day. A convicted offender shall not be remunerated for community service.

(3) If a court imposes community service, the court shall determine the term for the performance of the service which shall not exceed twenty-four months. On the basis of a report of the probation officer, the court may suspend the running of the term due to an illness or family situation of the convicted offender, or for a period for which the convicted offender is called up for active service or training exercises in the Defence Forces.

(4) In the performance of community service, a convicted offender shall observe supervisory requirements and perform, pursuant to the provisions of § 75 of this Code, the obligations imposed on him or her.

(5) Legislation which regulates health protection and occupational health and safety extends to convicted offenders who perform community service. If necessary, the court may, before substituting imprisonment by community service, order the medical examination of the convicted offender in order to ascertain whether the state of health of the convicted offender enables him or her to perform community service.

(6) If a convicted offender evades community service, fails to comply with supervisory requirements or to perform the obligations imposed on him or her, the court may, on the basis of a report prepared by the probation officer, enforce the imprisonment imposed on the convicted offender. In the case of execution of the imprisonment, the sentence shall be deemed to be served to the extent of the community service, whereas two hours of community service correspond to one day of imprisonment.

(28.01.2004 entered into force 14.02.2004 - RT I 2004, 7, 40)

(7) If a convicted offender commits another criminal offence during the performance of community service and is sentenced to imprisonment, the unserved part of the community service imposed on the convicted offender shall be substituted for pursuant to the ratio provided for in subsection (6) of this section. "The aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 65 (2) of this Code.

(12.06.2002 entered into force 01.09.2002 - RT I 2002, 56, 350)

Division 3

Substitution of Pecuniary Punishment, Fine or Fine to Extent of Assets

§ 70. Substitution of pecuniary punishment by imprisonment or community service

(1) If a convicted offender fails to pay the amount of the pecuniary punishment imposed on him or her, the court shall substitute the punishment by imprisonment or, with the consent of the convicted offender, by community service pursuant to the procedure provided for in § 69 of this Code.

(2) Three daily rates of a pecuniary punishment correspond to one day of imprisonment.

(3) In the case of substitution of a pecuniary punishment by imprisonment, the minimum term of the imprisonment shall be ten days.

§ 71. Substitution of fine to extent of assets by imprisonment

(1) If a convicted offender fails to pay the amount of the fine imposed on him or her to the extent of his or her assets, the court shall substitute the fine by imprisonment. Fifty minimum daily rates of a fine to the extent of assets correspond to one day of imprisonment.

(2) In the case of substitution of a fine to the extent of assets by imprisonment, the minimum term of the imprisonment shall be thirty days and maximum term shall be five years.

§ 72. Substitution of fine by detention

(1) If an offender fails to pay a fine imposed on him or her, the court shall substitute the fine by detention.

(2) Ten fine units correspond to one day of detention.

(3) In the case of substitution of a fine by detention, the minimum term of the detention shall be one day.

Chapter 5

Release from Punishment

§ 73. Probation

(1) If a court, taking into consideration the circumstances relating to the commission of a criminal offence and the personality of the offender, finds that service of the imprisonment imposed for a specified term or payment of the amount of the pecuniary punishment by the convicted offender is unreasonable, the court may order suspension of the sentence on probation. Unless otherwise provided by subsections (4) or (5) of this section, in such case the imposed punishment shall not be enforced in full or in part if the convicted offender does not commit a new intentional criminal offence within the period of probation determined by the court.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

(2) If the court decides that imprisonment or a pecuniary punishment imposed is not to be executed in part, the court shall determine the part of the imprisonment or pecuniary punishment which is to be borne or paid immediately and such part of the imprisonment or pecuniary punishment the execution of which is conditionally suspended.

(3) Probation shall be ordered for a period of three to five years.

(4) If a convicted offender commits a new intentional criminal offence during the period of probation and is sentenced to imprisonment, an aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 65 (2) of this Code. If the new criminal offence was committed through negligence, the court may order probation for the second time. In the case of enforcement of sentence of imprisonment, the court may substitute imprisonment by community service pursuant to the procedure provided in § 69 of this Code.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

(5) If a convicted offender commits a new intentional criminal offence during the period of probation and punished by a pecuniary punishment, an aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 65 (2) of this Code. In such case the court may decide not to enforce the punishment imposed for the previous criminal offence and order separate enforcement of the pecuniary punishment imposed for the new offence.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

(6) Probation shall not be applied to a person who has committed an intentional criminal offence and has been previously sentenced to imprisonment.

§ 74. Probation and subjection of convicted offender to supervision of conduct

(1) If a court, taking into consideration the circumstances relating to the commission of a criminal offence and the personality of the offender, finds that the service of the imposed imprisonment for a specified term by the convicted offender is unreasonable, the court may order suspension of the sentence on probation. Unless otherwise provided by subsections (4)-(6) of this section, in such case the imposed punishment shall not be enforced in full or in part if the convicted offender does not commit a new intentional criminal offence within the period of probation determined by the court and complies with the supervisory requirements and obligations imposed on him or her for the probation period pursuant to § 75 of this Code.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

(2) If the court decides that an imposed imprisonment is partially not enforced, the court shall determine the part of the imprisonment to be borne immediately and such part of the imprisonment which is suspended on probation.

(3) Probation shall be imposed for a period of eighteen months to three years.

(4) If, during a period of probation, a convicted offender fails to comply with the supervisory requirements or to perform the obligations imposed on him or her, the court may, on the basis of a report prepared by the probation officer, impose additional obligations pursuant to the provisions of subsection 75 (2) of this Code, extend the period of probation by one year or enforce the punishment.

(5) If a convicted offender commits a new intentional criminal offence during the period of probation and is sentenced to imprisonment, an aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 65 (2) of this Code. If the new criminal offence was committed through negligence, the court may order probation for the second time. In the case of enforcement of sentence of imprisonment, the court may substitute imprisonment by community service pursuant to the procedure provided in § 69 of this Code.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

(6) If a convicted offender commits a new intentional criminal offence during the period of probation and punished by a pecuniary punishment, an aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 65 (2) of this Code. In such case the court may decide not to enforce the punishment imposed for the previous criminal offence and order separate enforcement of the pecuniary punishment imposed for the new offence.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

§ 75. Supervision of conduct

(1) During supervision of conduct, a convicted offender is required to comply with the following supervisory requirements:

- 1) to reside in a permanent place of residence determined by the court;
- 2) to report at intervals determined by the probation supervisor at the probation supervision department;

(12.06.2002 entered into force 01.09.2002 - RT I 2002, 56, 350)

- 3) to submit, in his or her place of residence, to the supervision of the probation officer and provide the probation officer with information relating to the performance of the offender's obligations and his or her means of subsistence;
- 4) to obtain the permission of the probation officer before leaving the place of residence for longer than fifteen days;
- 5) to obtain the permission of the probation officer before changing residence, employment or place of study.

(2) Taking into consideration the circumstances relating to the commission of the criminal offence and the personality of the convicted offender, the court may impose the following obligations on the convicted offender for the period of supervision of conduct:

- 1) to remedy the damage caused by the criminal offence within a term determined by the court;
- 2) not to consume alcohol or narcotics;
- 3) not to hold, carry or use weapons;
- 4) to seek employment, acquire general education or a profession within the term determined by the court;
- 5) to undergo the prescribed treatment if the offender has previously consented to such treatment;
- 6) to perform the maintenance obligation;
- 7) not to stay in places determined by the court or communicate with persons determined by the court;
- 8) to participate in social assistance programmes.
- 9) in the case provided in § 76 of this Code, to submit to electronic surveillance if the offender has previously consented to such surveillance.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

(3) A court may, on the basis of a report prepared by the probation officer, mitigate or annul the obligations imposed on the convicted offender for the period of supervision of conduct or to impose additional obligations on him or her pursuant to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section.

(4) If a convicted offender promises to improve conduct and assumes obligations not listed in subsection (2) of this section, the court may approve them as obligations.

(5) Compliance with the supervisory requirements specified in subsection (1) of this section shall be suspended during the time of the serving of a partially enforced imprisonment.

(1) Electronic surveillance is the obligation imposed on a convicted offender for the term ordered by the court to submit to monitoring of compliance with the restrictions of freedom of movement by an electronic device attached to the body of the convicted offender which permits determination of the location of the convicted offender.

(2) Prior to application of electronic surveillance, the court shall order medical examination of the convicted offender as necessary in order to verify whether the state of health of the convicted offender allows his or her submission to electronic surveillance.

(3) The court may order electronic surveillance with the term of one to twelve months.

(4) The term of electronic surveillance shall begin to run from the date on which the electronic surveillance device is attached to the body of the convicted offender.

(5) Based on a report of the probation supervisor, the court may increase or reduce the term of electronic surveillance initially imposed on the convicted offender, taking account of the restriction provided by subsection (3) of this section.

(6) If the convicted offender withdraws his or her consent for application of electronic surveillance prior to the end of the term of electronic surveillance, the court shall order, based on the report of the probation officer, enforcement of the part of the punishment which was not served.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

§ 76. Release on parole

(1) If a person has been convicted of commission of a criminal offence in the second degree, or a criminal offence in the first degree through negligence, the court may release the convicted offender on parole if he or she has actually served:

1) at one third but not less than six months of the term of the imposed punishment and the person agrees to the application of the electronic surveillance provided in clause 75 (2) 9) of this Code, or

2) at least half but not less than six months of the term of the imposed punishment.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

(2) If a person has been convicted of intentional commission of a criminal offence in the first degree, the court may release the person on parole if the convicted person has actually served:

1) at half but not less than six months of the term of the imposed punishment and the person agrees to the application of the electronic surveillance provided in clause 75 (2) 9) of this Code, or

2) at least two-thirds of the term of the imposed punishment.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

(3) In deciding release on parole, the court shall take into consideration the circumstances relating to the commission of the criminal offence, the personality of the convicted offender, his or her previous personal history and conduct during the service of the sentence, his or her living conditions and the consequences which release on parole may bring about for the convicted offender.

(4) A period of probation shall be determined to the extent of the unserved part of the term of the punishment but for not less than one year. During the period of probation, the person shall be subject to supervision of conduct provided for in § 75 of this Code.

(4<sup>1</sup>) If a convicted offender is released on the basis of clause (1) 2) or (2) 2) of this section and the convicted offender agrees, the court may impose an additional obligation on the convicted offender to submit to the electronic surveillance provided by clause 75 (2) 9) of this Code.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

(5) If a person, during a period of probation, fails to comply with supervisory requirements or perform the obligations imposed on him or her or fails to submit to electronic surveillance, the court shall enforce the unserved part of the sentence on the basis of a report by the probation officer.

(27.09.2006 entered into force 01.01.2007 - RT I 2006, 46, 333)

(6) If a person commits a new intentional criminal offence during a period of probation and is sentenced to imprisonment, the unserved part of the sentence shall be enforced. In such case, the aggregate punishment shall be imposed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 65 (2) of this Code.

(12.06.2002 entered into force 01.09.2002 - RT I 2002, 56, 350)

§ 77. Release on parole in case of life imprisonment

(1) If a person has been sentenced to life imprisonment, the court may release the person on parole if the convicted offender has actually served at least thirty years of the term of the punishment.

(2) In releasing a person specified in subsection (1) of this section on parole, the provisions of subsection 76 (3) of this Code shall be taken into consideration.

(3) Probation shall be ordered for a period of five to ten years.

(4) If a person commits a new intentional criminal offence during a period of probation, he or she shall be ordered to serve the sentence of life imprisonment.

§ 78. Calculation of period of probation

A period of probation commences to run as of:

- 1) pronouncement of the court decision in the cases provided for in §§ 73 and 74 of this Code;
- 2) entry into force of the court decision in the cases provided for in §§ 76 and 77 of this Code.

§ 79. Release from punishment due to terminal illness of person

(1) If a person suffers from a terminal illness, the court may release him or her from bearing the punishment. In such case, the court shall take into consideration the circumstances relating to the criminal offence committed, the personality of the convicted offender and the nature of the illness.

(2) If a person is mentally capable at the time he or she commits a criminal offence but, before or after the making of the court judgment, becomes mentally ill or feeble-minded or suffers from another severe mental disorder and the person is incapable of understanding the unlawfulness of his or her act or to act according to such understanding, the court shall release the person from the punishment or the bearing thereof. In such case, the court shall act pursuant to the provisions of § 86 of this Code.

(3) If a person specified in subsections (1) or (2) of this section recovers before the expiry of a limitation period provided for in § 82 of this Code, the court may enforce the punishment or the unserved part thereof.

§ 80. Release from punishment in case person is seriously injured as result of criminal offence

If a convicted offender is seriously injured as a result of committing a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment for a term of up to five years, the court may release the person from the punishment.

Chapter 6

Limitation Periods

§ 81. Limitation period of offence

(1) No one shall be convicted of or punished for the commission of a criminal offence if the following terms have expired between the commission of the criminal offence and the entry into force of the corresponding court judgment:

- 1) ten years in the case of commission of a criminal offence in the first degree;
- 2) five years in the case of commission of a criminal offence in the second degree.

(2) Offences against humanity, war crimes and offences for which life imprisonment is prescribed do not expire.

(3) A misdemeanour expires after two years have passed between the commission thereof and the entry into force of the corresponding judgment or decision.

(4) In the case of an intermittent offence, the limitation period shall be calculated as of the commission of the last act. In the case of a continuous offence, the limitation period shall be calculated as of the termination of the continuous act.

(5) The limitation period of a criminal offence is interrupted with the performance of the following procedural act in the criminal proceeding:

- 1) application of a preventive measure with regard to the suspect or accused, or seizure of his or her property, or property which is the object of money laundering;
- 2) the prosecution of the accused;
- 3) adjournment of the hearing of a matter in the case the accused fails to appear;

- 4) interrogation of the accused in the court hearing;
- 5) ordering of expert assessment or additional evidence in the court hearing.

(24.01.2007 entered into force 15.03.2007 - RT I 2007, 13, 69)

(6) If the limitation period of a criminal offence is interrupted, the limitation period shall commence again with the performance of the procedural act provided in subsection (5) of this section. A person shall however not be convicted of or punished for the commission of a criminal offence if the period between the commission of the criminal offence and the entry into force of the corresponding court judgment is five years longer than the term provided for in subsection (1) of this section.

(24.01.2007 entered into force 15.03.2007 - RT I 2007, 13, 69)

(7) The limitation period of offence is interrupted:

- 1) in the case a suspect, accused or person subject to proceedings absconds from pre-trial proceedings, extra-judicial proceedings or court, until the person is detained or appears before the body conducting the proceedings;
- 2) upon commencement of criminal proceedings in a matter of an act with elements of a misdemeanour, until the termination of the criminal proceedings;
- 3) upon commission of a criminal offence against sexual self-determination against a person younger than eighteen years of age, until the victim attains 18 years of age unless the reason for the criminal proceedings became evident before the victim attained such age.

(24.01.2007 entered into force 15.03.2007 - RT I 2007, 13, 69)

(8) In the cases provided by clauses (7) 1) and 2) of this section the limitation period shall not be resumed if more than five years have passed from the commission of the criminal offence or more than three years have passed from the commission of the misdemeanour.

(24.01.2007 entered into force 15.03.2007 - RT I 2007, 13, 69)

§ 82. Limitation period for execution of judgment or decision

(1) A judgment shall not be executed if the following terms have expired after the entry into force of the judgment:

- 1) five years from entry into force of a court judgment made in a matter concerning a criminal offence in the first degree;
- 2) three years from entry into force of a court judgment made in a matter concerning a criminal offence in the second degree;
- 3) eighteen months from entry into force of a judgment or decision made with regard to a misdemeanour.

(15.06.2005 entered into force 21.07.2005 - RT I 2005, 20, 126)

(2) The limitation period for the execution of a judgment is suspended:

- 1) for the period during which the person evades service or payment of the punishment imposed on him or her;
- 2) for a period of probation imposed on the basis of the provisions of § 73 or 74 of this Code;
- 3) for the period during which enforcement of the punishment imposed on the person is postponed or by which the term of the punishment has been extended;
- 4) for the period during which the person is in a foreign state and is not or cannot be extradited.

(3) The limitation period for execution of a conviction does not expire if life imprisonment has been imposed as punishment.

Chapter 7

Other Sanctions

§ 83. Confiscation of object used to commit offence and direct object of offence

(1) A court may apply confiscation of the object used to commit an intentional offence if it belong to the offender at the time of the making of the judgment or ruling.

(2) In the cases provided by law, a court may confiscate the substance or object which was the direct object of the commission of an intentional offence, or the substance or object used for preparation of the offence if these belong to the offender at the time of the making of the judgment and confiscation thereof is not mandatory pursuant to law.

(3) As an exception, a court may confiscate the objects or substance specified in subsections (1) and (2) of this section if it belongs to a third person at the time of the making of the judgment or ruling and the person:

- 1) has, at least through recklessness, aided in the use of the objects or substance for the commission or preparation of the offence,
- 2) has acquired the objects or substance, in full or in the essential part, on account of the offender, as a present or in any other manner for a price which is considerably lower than the normal market price, or
- 3) knew that the objects or substance was transferred to the person in order to avoid confiscation thereof.

(4) In the absence of the permission necessary for the possession of an object or substance, such object or substance shall be confiscated.

(5) In the cases provided for in subsection (4) of this section, a device, object or substance may be confiscated if the person has committed at least an unlawful act.

(6) In the cases provided for in subsections (1), (2) and (4) of this section, the object used to commit a misdemeanour or the substance or object which was the direct object of a misdemeanour may be confiscated by the extra-judicial body prescribed by law.

(13.12.2006 entered into force 01.02.2007 - RT I 2007, 2, 7)

§ 83<sup>1</sup>. Confiscation of assets acquired through offence

(1) A court shall confiscate of the assets acquired through an offence object if these belong to the offender at the time of the making of the judgment or ruling.

(2) As an exception, a court shall confiscate the assets or substance specified in subsection (1) this section if these belong to a third person at the time of the making of the judgment or ruling, and if:

- 1) these were acquired, in full or in the essential part, on account of the offender, as a present or in any other manner for a price which is considerably lower than the normal market price, or
- 2) the third person knew that that the assets were transferred to the person in order to avoid confiscation.

(3) The court may decide not to confiscate, in part or in full, property acquired through offence if, taking account of the circumstances of the offence or the situation of the person, confiscation would be unreasonably burdensome or if the value of the assets is disproportionately small in comparison to the costs of storage, transfer or destruction of the property. The court may, for the purpose of satisfaction of a civil action, decrease the amount of the property or assets to be confiscated by the amount of the object of the action.

§ 83<sup>2</sup>. Extended confiscation of assets acquired through criminal offence

(1) If a court convicts a person of a criminal offence and imposes imprisonment for a term of more than three years or life imprisonment, the court shall, in the cases provided by this Code, confiscate a part or all of the criminal offender's assets if these belong to the offender at the time of the making of the judgment, and if the nature of the criminal offence, the legal income, or the difference between the financial situation and the standard of living of the person, or another fact gives reason to presume that the person has acquired the assets through commission of the criminal offence. Confiscation is not applied to assets with regard to which the person certifies that such assets have been acquired out of lawfully received funds.

(2) As an exception, a court may confiscate the assets of a third person on the bases and to the extent specified in subsection (1) this section if these belong to the third person at the time of the making of the judgment or ruling, and if:

- 1) these were acquired, in full or in the essential part, on account of the offender, as a present or in any other manner for a price which is considerably lower than the normal market price, or
- 2) the third person knew that that the assets were transferred to the person in order to avoid confiscation.

(3) Assets of a third party which has been acquired more than five years prior to the commission of a criminal offence shall not be confiscated.

(4) Upon extended confiscation of assets acquired through criminal offence, the court shall take account of the provisions of subsection 83<sup>1</sup> (3) of this Code.

(13.12.2006 entered into force 01.02.2007 - RT I 2007, 2, 7)

§ 84. Substitution of confiscation

If assets acquired by an offence have been transferred, consumed or the confiscation thereof is impossible or unreasonable for another reason, the court may order payment of an amount which corresponds to the value of the assets subject to confiscation.

(13.12.2006 entered into force 01.02.2007 - RT I 2007, 2, 7)

§ 85. Effect of confiscation

(1) Confiscated objects shall be transferred into state ownership or, in the cases provided for in an international agreement, shall be returned.

(2) In the case of confiscation, the rights of third persons remain in force. The state shall pay compensation to third persons, except in the cases provided for in subsections 83 (3) and (4), 83<sup>1</sup> (2) and 83<sup>2</sup> (2) of this Code.

(13.12.2006 entered into force 01.02.2007 - RT I 2007, 2, 7)

(3) Before entry into force, the decision of an extra-judicial body or court concerning confiscation has the effect of a prohibition against disposal.

(12.06.2002 entered into force 01.09.2002 - RT I 2002, 56, 350)

§ 86. Coercive psychiatric treatment

(1) If at the time of commission of an unlawful act the person lacks capacity or if he or she, after the making of the court judgment but before the service of the full sentence, becomes mentally ill or feeble-minded or suffers from any other severe mental disorder, or if it is established during preliminary investigation or the court hearing of the matter that the person suffers from one of the aforementioned conditions and therefore his or her mental state at the time of commission of the unlawful act cannot be ascertained and he or she poses danger to himself or herself and to the society due to his or her unlawful act and mental state and is in need of treatment, the court shall order coercive psychiatric treatment of the person.

(2) The treatment specified in subsection (1) of this section shall be provided by a psychiatric institution which has been issued a corresponding licence.

(3) Coercive psychiatric treatment shall be applied until the person recovers or ceases to pose danger. Termination of a treatment shall be ordered by the court.

(4) If a punishment is imposed on a person after coercive psychiatric treatment, the period of treatment shall be included in the term of the punishment. One day of treatment corresponds to one day of imprisonment.

§ 87. Sanctions applicable to minors

(1) Taking into account the level of the moral and mental development of a person of 14 to 18 years of age and his or her ability to understand the unlawfulness of his or her act or to act according to such understanding, the court may release the person from punishment and impose the following sanctions on him or her:

1) admonition;

2) subjection to supervision of conduct pursuant to the provisions of § 75 of this Code;

3) placement in a youth home;

(12.06.2002 entered into force 01.09.2002 - RT I 2002, 56, 350)

4) placement in a school for pupils who need special treatment due to behavioural problems.

(2) A court may subject a person of less than 18 years of age to supervision of conduct for up to one year. On the basis of a report prepared by the probation officer, a court may extend the term of supervision of conduct by up to one year or, as an exception, until the convicted offender attains 18 years of age.

(3) A person of less than 18 years of age is placed in a youth home or a school for pupils who need special treatment due to behavioural problems for up to two years, taking into consideration the end of the academic year. The court may extend the term of stay in a youth home or a school for pupils who need special treatment due to behavioural problems by up to one year, taking into consideration the end of the academic year.

(19.05.2004 entered into force 01.07.2004 - RT I 2004, 46, 329)

(4) A court may alter the type of sanctions provided for in clauses (1) 2)-4) of this section.

(12.06.2002 entered into force 01.09.2002 - RT I 2002, 56, 350)
