activity.

- (a) imprisonment for life, in the case of an individual; or
- (b) a fine, in the case of a body corporate.

(2) For the purpose of this Act, a terrorist activity is facilitated—

- (a) where the facilitator knows that a terrorist activity will be facilitated;
- (b) whether or not the facilitator knows the specific nature of the terrorist activity; and
- (c) whether or not any terrorist activity was actually carried out.

Commission of offence for terrorist group.

9.—(1) Every person who commits a terrorism offence under this Act for the benefit of, at the direction of or in association with, a terrorist group, commits an indictable offence and is liable upon conviction to—

- (a) imprisonment for life, in the case of an individual; or
- (b) a fine, in the case of a body corporate.

(2) An offence may be committed under subsection (1) whether or not the accused knows the identity of any of the persons who constitute the terrorist group.

Instructing commission of offence for terrorist group.

10.—(1) Every person who knowingly instructs, directly or indirectly, any person to carry out any activity for the benefit of, at the direction of or in association with, a terrorist group, for the purpose of enhancing the ability of any terrorist group to facilitate or carry out a terrorist activity, commits an indictable offence and is liable upon conviction to—

- (a) imprisonment for life, in the case of an individual; or
- (b) a fine, in the case of a body corporate.

(2) An offence may be committed under subsection (1) whether or not—

- (a) the activity that the accused instructs to be carried out is actually carried out;
- (b) the accused instructs a particular person to carry out the activity referred to in paragraph (a);
- (c) the accused knows the identity of the person instructed to carry out the activity referred to in paragraph (a);

- (c) the accused knows the identity of the person whom the accused instructs to carry out the terrorist activity; or
- (d) the person whom the accused instructs to carry out the terrorist activity knows that it is a terrorist activity.

Harbouring or concealing.

12.—(1) No person shall harbour or conceal, or prevent, hinder or interfere with the apprehension of, any other person whom he knows or has reason to believe has committed or is planning or is likely to commit any terrorist activity.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an indictable offence and shall be liable upon conviction to—

- (a) imprisonment for life, in the case of an individual; or
- (b) a fine, in the case of a body corporate.

Information about terrorism
offence.

13.—(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a person commits an offence if that person fails to disclose to a Constable, as soon as is reasonably practicable, any information that comes to that person's attention in the course of his trade, profession or employment and based on which he reasonably believes that another person has committed a terrorism offence.

(2) It shall be a defence for any person charged with an offence under subsection (1) to prove that—

- (a) he had a reasonable excuse for not making the disclosure; or
- (b) where the information referred to in subsection (1) comes to the person in the course of his employment and his employer has an established procedure for the disclosure of the information, the person disclosed the information in accordance with the procedure.

(3) An attorney-at-law shall not be required to disclose any information obtained, or belief based on any information disclosed to him—

- (a) by his client in connection with the provision of legal advice; or
- (b) by any person for the purpose of actual or contemplated legal proceedings, and not being a disclosure with a view to furthering a criminal purpose.

(4) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable upon summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Orders, Reports and Warrants

14.—(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall apply to a Judge of the Supreme Court, in Chambers, for an order under subsection (4) in respect of an entity, if—

Order in respect of listed entity.

- (a) the entity is included on a list of entities designated as terrorist entities by the United Nations Security Council; and
- (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions has reasonable grounds to believe that the entity—
 - (i) has knowingly committed or participated in the commission of a terrorism offence; or
 - (ii) is knowingly acting on behalf of, at the direction of, or in association with, an entity referred to in paragraph (a).

(2) Before acting under subsection (1), the Director of Public Prosecutions shall make such investigations as he considers necessary.

(3) An application under subsection (1) shall be—

- (a) ex parte; and
- (b) accompanied by an affidavit deposing to the matters referred to in—
 - (i) subsection (1)(a); and
 - (ii) subsection (1)(b)(i) or (ii).

(4) Upon an application under subsection (1) the Judge shall, by order, declare an entity to be a listed entity for the purposes of this Act if the Judge is satisfied as to the matters referred to in—

- (a) subsection (1)(a); and
- (b) subsection (1)(b)(i) or (ii).

(5) Where an order is made under subsection (4), (7)(d), or (10), the Director of Public Prosecutions shall, within seven days after the date of the order, cause to be published in a daily newspaper in circulation in the Island—

- (a) a copy of the order; and
- (b) in the case of an order under subsection (4), a statement that the matter will be reviewed every six months.

(6) Within sixty days after the date of publication of an order under subsection (5), the entity in respect of which the order is made may apply to a Judge of the Supreme Court for a review of the order and shall notify the Director of Public Prosecutions of the application.

(7) Upon an application made under subsection (6), the Judge shall—

- (a) hear any evidence or other information that may be presented by the Director of Public Prosecutions and may, at the request of the Director of Public Prosecutions, hear all or part of that evidence or information in the absence of the applicant or any counsel representing the applicant, if the Judge is of the opinion that the disclosure of the information would be prejudicial to national security or endanger the safety of any person;
- (b) provide the applicant with a statement summarizing the information available to the Judge, so as to enable the applicant to be reasonably informed of the reasons for the making of the order, without disclosing any information the disclosure of which would, in the opinion of the Judge, be prejudicial to national security or endanger the safety of any person;
- (c) provide the applicant with a reasonable opportunity to be heard; and

- (d) determine whether or not the order should be revoked on the basis of the information available to the Judge and, if he determines that the order should be revoked, make an order for such revocation.

(8) For the purposes of any application or review under this section, the Judge may receive in evidence anything that, in the opinion of the Judge is reliable and relevant, even if it would not otherwise be admissible evidence in law.

(9) The Director of Public Prosecutions, shall, every six months—

- (a) review all orders made under subsection (4) so as to determine whether the circumstances referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b) continue to exist in respect of the listed entity; and
- (b) if he determines that such circumstances no longer exist, apply to a Judge of the Supreme Court for the revocation of the order in respect of the listed entity.

(10) Upon an application under paragraph (b) of subsection (9), the Judge shall, if satisfied as to the matters referred to in that paragraph, make an order for the revocation.

15.—(1) In this section and sections 16 to 18 “designated authority” means the Director of Public Prosecutions or such other person as the Minister may designate by order.

Duty of entities to report.

(2) The following entities shall determine on a continuing basis whether they are in possession or control of property owned or controlled by or on behalf of a listed entity—

- (a) foreign companies in respect of their business in Jamaica relating to banking, securities, insurance, investment advice or trusts;
- (b) financial institutions;
- (c) any entity designated by the Minister, by order subject to affirmative resolution, as an entity to which the provisions of this section shall apply.

(3) Every entity referred to paragraph (2) shall report to the designated authority at least once in every four calendar months, or in response to a request made to it by the designated authority, either—

- (a) that it is not in possession or control of any property referred to in subsection (2); or
- (b) that it is in possession or control of such property, in which case it shall also report the number of persons, contracts or accounts involved and the total value of the property.

(4) In making a report under subsection (3) the entity shall comply with such directions as may be given by the designated authority.

(5) No criminal or civil proceedings shall lie against a person who makes a report in good faith under subsection (3).

(6) An entity that makes a report under subsection (3) to the designated authority shall not disclose the existence of that report to any other person.

(7) A person who contravenes any of the provisions of this section commits an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to—

- (a) in the case of an individual, a fine not exceeding one million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months, or to both such fine and imprisonment; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, a fine not exceeding three million dollars.

(8) In proceedings against a person for an offence against this section, it is a defence for the person charged that he had a reasonable excuse for not making the report required under subsection (3).

Duty to report
suspicious
transactions.

16.—(1) This section applies to every entity referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 15(2).

(2) The entity shall, in relation to each customer, pay special attention to all complex, unusual or large transactions, or unusual patterns of transactions whether completed or not, which appear to the entity to be inconsistent with the normal transactions carried out by that customer with the entity.

(3) Each entity shall promptly report to the designated authority, all complex, unusual or large transactions and unusual patterns of transactions, which have no apparent economic or obviously lawful purpose.

(4) An entity which fails to comply with subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to—

- (a) in the case of an individual, a fine not exceeding one million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months, or to both such fine and imprisonment; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, a fine not exceeding three million dollars.

(5) In proceedings against a person for an offence under this section, it is a defence for the person charged that he had a reasonable excuse for not making the report required under subsection (3).

(6) Where a member of staff of the entity, other than an officer referred to in section 18(3), is charged with an offence under this section, it is a defence for that member of staff that he disclosed the information or other matter in question to that officer in accordance with the procedures established pursuant to section 18.

(7) Where a report is made in accordance with subsection (3), the financial institution concerned, its directors and employees shall be exempt from—

- (a) any liability to prosecution for an offence under section 4, 5 or 6;

- (b) any criminal, civil or administrative liability, as the case may be, for breach of any restriction on disclosure of information imposed by contract or by any legislative, regulatory or administrative provision, regardless of the outcome of the report.

Unauthorized disclosures.

17.—(1) A person commits an offence if, knowing or suspecting that a designated authority is acting or is proposing to act, in connection with an investigation which is being, or is about to be conducted in relation to a terrorism offence, he discloses information or any other matter, relating to the investigation, to any other person, except—

- (a) an attorney-at-law for the purpose of obtaining legal advice; or
- (b) for the purpose of facilitating the investigation or any proceedings which might be conducted following the investigation.

(2) A person commits an offence if, knowing or suspecting that a report has been made to the designated authority under section 15(3) or 16(3), he discloses information or any matter, relating to the report, to any other person, except—

- (a) an attorney-at-law for the purpose of obtaining legal advice; or
- (b) for the purpose of facilitating any investigation or proceedings which might be conducted following that report.

(3) A person commits an offence if, knowing or suspecting that a disclosure to the officer designated by the entity for that purpose has been made, he discloses information or any other matter, relating to that disclosure, to any other person, except—

- (a) an attorney-at-law for the purpose of obtaining legal advice; or

- (b) for the purpose of facilitating any investigation or proceedings which might be conducted following that disclosure.

(4) Nothing in subsections (1) to (3) makes it an offence for an attorney-at-law to disclose information or any other matters to—

- (a) a person who is, or a representative of, a client of that attorney-at-law, in connection with the giving of legal advice to that client; or
- (b) any other person, in contemplation of or in connection with, legal proceedings and for the purpose of those proceedings.

(5) A person convicted of an offence under subsection (1), (2) or (3) is liable to—

- (a) in the case of an individual, a fine not exceeding two million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, a fine not exceeding six million dollars.

18.—(1) Every entity referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 15(2) shall establish and implement such programmes, policies, procedures and controls as may be necessary for the purpose of enabling it to fulfill its duties under sections 15 and 16.

Regulatory controls by certain entities.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the programmes referred to in that subsection shall include—

- (a) the establishment of procedures to ensure high standards of integrity of employees;
- (b) the development of a system to evaluate the personal employment and financial history of those employees;

- (c) the establishment of programmes for training of employees on a continuing basis and for instructing employees as to their responsibilities in respect of the provisions of this Act;
- (d) arrangements for an independent audit in order to ensure that the aforesaid programmes are implemented.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the entity shall designate one of its officers who performs management functions to be responsible for ensuring the implementation of the programmes, policies, procedures and controls referred to in subsection (1), including the reporting of transactions referred to in section 16(3) (complex, unusual or large transactions).

(4) The entity shall consult with the competent authority for the purpose of carrying out its obligations under this section.

(5) In subsection (4), “competent authority” means the Minister responsible for finance or such other persons as he may specify in writing for the purpose of this section.

(6) An entity which contravenes subsection (1) or (3) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate to a fine not exceeding one million dollars.

Monitoring
orders.

19.—(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions may apply to a Judge in Chambers in accordance with subsection (3) for an order (in this section and section 20 referred to as a “monitoring order”) directing a financial institution to give a constable named by the Director of Public Prosecutions in the application, information and such documents as are specified in the application, other than items subject to legal privilege.

(2) The constable referred to in subsection (1) shall be a constable designated in writing by the Commissioner of Police.

(3) An application under subsection (1) shall be made ex parte and shall be in writing and be accompanied by an affidavit.

(4) A monitoring order shall direct a financial institution to disclose information or to produce documents, or both, obtained by or under the control of the institution about transactions conducted through an account held by a particular person with the institution.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), a monitoring order shall apply in relation to transactions conducted during the period specified in the order, being a period commencing not earlier than the day on which notice of the order is given to the financial institution and ending no later than three months after the date of the order.

(6) The Director of Public Prosecutions may apply, at any time while the order remains in force, for an extension of the period mentioned in subsection (5).

(7) A Judge shall not make a monitoring order in respect of any account unless he is satisfied that—

(a) the person in respect of whose account the information is, or documents are, sought—

(i) has committed or is about to commit a terrorism offence; or

(ii) has benefited directly or indirectly, or is about to benefit directly or indirectly, from the commission of such an offence;

(b) proceeds from the account have been used or are about to be used directly or indirectly to facilitate the commission of a terrorism offence; or

(c) proceeds realized directly or indirectly from the commission of a terrorism offence have been credited to the account.

(8) A monitoring order shall specify—

(a) the name or names, if known, in which the account is believed to be held;

- (b) the class of information and a description of any documents that the institution is required to give; and
- (c) the name of the constable to whom the information is, or documents are, to be given.

(9) A financial institution that is notified of a monitoring order and knowingly—

- (a) contravenes the order; or
- (b) provides false or misleading information or documents in purported compliance with the order, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars, in the case of an individual, or a fine not exceeding three million dollars in the case of a body corporate.

(10) A reference in this section to a transaction conducted through an account includes a reference to—

- (a) the making of a fixed term deposit or a financial investment;
- (b) in relation to a fixed term deposit, the transfer of the amount deposited or any part thereof at the end of the term; and
- (c) the opening, existence or use of a deposit box held by the institution.

(11) Nothing in sections 4 (providing, making available, etc., property or services for terrorist purposes), 5 (using or possessing property for terrorist purposes) or 6 (prohibition against dealing in property) shall apply to a financial institution that is subject to a monitoring order in so far as that institution continues to conduct business with the person to whom the order relates.

20.—(1) A financial institution that is, or has been, subject to a monitoring order shall not disclose the existence or the operation of the order to any person except—

- (a) an officer or agent of the institution for the purpose of ensuring that the order is complied with;

Monitoring orders not to be disclosed.

- (b) an attorney-at-law, for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the order.

(2) A person referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b), to whom disclosure of the existence or operation of a monitoring order has been made, and a constable referred to in section 19(1) shall not—

- (a) disclose the existence or operation of the order except to another person referred to in that subsection for the purpose of—
 - (i) the performance of that person's duties, if the disclosure is made by the constable referred to in section 19(1);
 - (ii) ensuring that the order is complied with or obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the order, if the disclosure is made by an officer or agent of the institution; or
 - (iii) giving legal advice or making representations in relation to the order, if the disclosure is made by an attorney-at-law; or
- (b) make a record of or disclose the existence or the operation of the order in any circumstances even when he ceases to be a person referred to in subsection (1).

(3) Nothing in subsection (2) prevents the disclosure by a person referred to in subsection (1)(b) of the existence or operation of a monitoring order—

- (a) for the purposes of, or in connection with, legal proceedings; or
- (b) in the course of proceedings before a court.

(4) A person referred to in subsection (1)(b) shall not be required to disclose to any court the existence or operation of a monitoring order.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court—

- (a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding one million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and imprisonment;
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, to a fine not exceeding three million dollars.

(6) A reference in this section to disclosing the existence or operation of a monitoring order to a person includes a reference to disclosing information to the person from which that person could reasonably be expected to infer the existence or operation of the monitoring order.

Examination
and production orders.

21.—(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions may, if the conditions referred to in subsection (2) are met, apply for—

- (a) an order that information or documents be made available for examination; or
- (b) a production order.

(2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1) are that the Director of Public Prosecutions has reasonable grounds for suspecting that—

- (a) a terrorism offence has been, is being, or is likely to be committed; and
- (b) an entity has possession or control of any information or document relevant to the commission or likely commission of the terrorism offence.

(3) An application under this section shall be made ex parte in writing to a Judge in Chambers and shall be accompanied by an affidavit, sworn on the information and belief of the Director of Public Prosecutions or a person designated by the Director of Public Prosecutions for that purpose, deposing to the following matters—

- (a) the offence under investigation;

- (b) the entity or property, as the case may be, in relation to which the information or documents referred to in paragraph (c) are required;
- (c) the type of information or documents in respect of which disclosure or production is sought and the form in which they should be disclosed or produced; and
- (d) the facts relied on to justify the suspicion, on reasonable grounds, that—
 - (i) the entity referred to in paragraph (b) has committed or is likely to commit a terrorism offence; or
 - (ii) the property referred to in that paragraph has been used or is likely to be used to commit such an offence, and that the information or documents referred to in paragraph (c) are likely to be of substantial value, whether alone or together with other material, to an investigation in respect of that offence.

(4) Subject to any conditions that the Judge considers advisable in the public interest, the Judge to whom an application is made under subsection (1) may order any entity having possession or control of the information or documents referred to in subsection (3)(c) to—

- (a) make the information or documents available for examination by a constable named in the order; or
- (b) produce the information or documents to the constable:

Provided that the order shall not require the constable to remove or retain any accounting records (including ledgers, daybooks, cash books and account books) used in the ordinary business of banking, but may allow the constable to examine or copy them wherever they are located.

(5) Where any information or document is made available for examination or is produced to a constable pursuant to subsection (4)—

- (a) in the case of any information or document made available for examination, the constable may examine, take extracts from, or make copies of the information or document; or
- (b) in the case of any information or document produced, the constable may—
 - (i) examine, take extracts from, or make copies of the information or document; or
 - (ii) retain the information or document, if and for so long as, its retention is reasonably necessary for the purposes of this Act.

(6) Where a constable retains any information or document pursuant to an order made under this section, the constable shall give to the entity in respect of whom the order is made—

- (a) a receipt for the information or document, as the case may be; and
- (b) a copy of the information or document, as the case may be, certified by the constable in writing to be a true copy of the information or document.

(7) An entity in respect of which an order is made under subsection (4) shall comply with the order within the period specified in the order:

Provided that the Judge may, on the application of that entity, extend the time allowed for complying with the order.

(8) An order under subsection (4) requiring an entity to make available or produce information or documents—

- (a) may provide for such assistance as the constable may require to execute the order;
- (b) shall specify the time and place in which the information or documents are to be made available or produced, as the case may be; and

- (c) shall be served on the person in respect of whom it is made, in the manner that the Judge directs or as may be prescribed by rules of court.

(9) A person in respect of whom an order is made under this section requiring the production of a document, may apply to a Judge in Chambers, for a variation of the order on the ground that the document is essential to the business activities of that person.

(10) The person in respect of whom the order is made may, by application to a Judge in Chambers, object to the disclosure of any information or document on the ground that—

- (a) a privilege is attached by law to the information or document; or
- (b) disclosure of the information or document would not, for any other reason, be in the public interest.

(11) An application under subsection (9) or (10) shall be made within five days after the date of service of the order, or within such greater period, having regard to the peculiar circumstances of the case, as the Judge may specify in the order.

(12) In determining an application under subsection (9) or (10), the Judge may, if he considers it necessary, examine the information or document in relation to which the application is made and, the Judge shall—

- (a) in the case of an application under subsection (9), if satisfied as to the ground mentioned in that subsection, grant the application and order that the entity make the document available to the constable pursuant to subsection (4)(a); or
- (b) in the case of an application under subsection (10), if satisfied as to any of the grounds mentioned in that subsection, grant the application and order that disclosure or production be refused.

(13) Where any information or document is copied pursuant to subsection (5), any such copy that is certified by a Resident Magistrate to be a copy made under that subsection is evidence of the nature and content of the original information or document and has the same probative value as the original information or document would have if it had been proved in the ordinary way.

(14) A Resident Magistrate shall not certify any copy under subsection (13) unless the Resident Magistrate has seen or heard, as the case may require, the original information or document.

(15) In the case of—

- (a) accounting records referred to in subsection (4); or
- (b) a document in respect of which a production order is varied pursuant to subsection (12)(a), a Resident Magistrate may, for the purpose of complying with subsection (14), order the entity having possession or control of the records to produce the records at such time and place as the Resident Magistrate considers appropriate to prevent or minimize any disruption to the business in which the records are used.

Failure to comply with examination
or production
order.

22.—(1) An entity commits an offence if—

- (a) without reasonable excuse, it fails to comply with an order made under section 21; or
- (b) in purported compliance with such an order, it produces or makes available any information or document that it knows to be false or misleading in a material particular and the entity does not—
 - (i) indicate, to the constable to whom the information or document is produced or made available, that the information or document is false or misleading; and

- (ii) provide to that constable such correct information as it has in its possession or as it can reasonably acquire.

(2) An entity which commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction before a Resident Magistrate to—

- (a) in the case of an individual, a fine not exceeding one million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, a fine not exceeding three million dollars.

23.—(1) Subject to subsection (3), where a Resident Magistrate is satisfied by information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that applicable property is to be found on any premises specified in the information, he may issue a search warrant in accordance with subsection (2).

Warrant to search premises for applicable property.

(2) The warrant mentioned in subsection (1) may authorize a constable named in the warrant to enter the premises specified in the warrant, with such assistance and by such force as is necessary and reasonable to—

- (a) enter upon the premises;
- (b) search the premises for applicable property;
- (c) seize property found in the course of the search that the constable believes, on reasonable grounds, to be applicable property.

(3) A warrant shall not be issued under this section unless the informant or some other person has given to the Justice of the Peace, on oath, any further information that the Justice of the Peace may require concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is sought.

(4) A warrant issued under this section shall include—

- (a) a statement of the purpose for which the warrant is issued, and a reference to the nature of the terrorism offence;
- (b) a description of the kind of property to be seized;
- (c) the time, not being later than twenty-eight days, upon the expiration of which the warrant ceases to have effect; and
- (d) a statement as to whether entry is authorized to be made at any time of the day or night, or during the specified hours of the day or night.

Other applicable property may be seized.

24.—(1) A warrant issued pursuant to section 23 shall be deemed to authorize the constable to seize property that he believes, on reasonable grounds, to be applicable property—

- (a) in relation to the terrorism offence, although not of a kind specified in the warrant; or
- (b) in relation to another terrorism offence, if the constable believes, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to seize that property in order to prevent its concealment, loss or destruction or its use in connection with the offence specified as aforesaid or any other offence.

Record of property seized.

25.—(1) A constable who executes a warrant issued under section 23 shall—

- (a) detain the property seized, taking reasonable care to ensure that it is preserved so that it may be dealt with in accordance with this Act;
- (b) upon the execution of the warrant, prepare a list of the property seized and give a copy thereof to the owner or occupier of the premises who is present at the time of the seizure; and

- (c) as soon as is practicable after the execution of the warrant, but within a period of seventy-two hours thereafter, prepare a written report, identifying the property seized and the location where the property is being detained and send a copy of the report to the Clerk of Courts in that location.

(2) The Clerk of Courts referred to in subsection (1)(c) shall furnish a copy of the report to—

- (a) the person from whom the property was seized;
- (b) the designated authority; and
- (c) any other person who appears to the Clerk of Courts to have an interest in the property.

26.—(1) Where property is seized otherwise than because it may afford evidence as to the commission of a terrorism offence, any person who claims an interest in the property may apply to the Court for an order that the property be returned to him.

Return of property
seized.

(2) Where application is made under subsection (1) the Court shall order the return of the property to the applicant if the Court is satisfied that—

- (a) the applicant is entitled to possession of the property;
- (b) the property is not applicable property in relation to a terrorism offence; and
- (c) the person in respect of whose conviction, charging or proposed charging the seizure was made, has no interest in the property.

(3) Subject to section 27, the property shall be returned to the person from whose possession it was seized, as soon as practicable after the end of a period of seventy-two hours after seizure if at the end of that period an information has not been laid in respect of a terrorism offence.

Retention of property
seized.

27.—(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), where property is seized under section 23 otherwise than because it may afford evidence as to the commission of a terrorism offence and—

- (a) but for this subsection, the property would be returned to a person as soon as is practicable after a particular period; and
- (b) before the end of that period, a restraint order is made in relation to the property, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the restraint order or with any other provision of this Act.

(2) If, at the time when a restraint order is made against property referred to in subsection (1), the property is in the possession of the Commissioner of Police, the Commissioner of Police may apply to the Court that made the restraint order for an order that he retain possession of the property.

(3) The Court may, if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the property may afford evidence as to the commission of a terrorism offence, make an order that the Commissioner of Police retain the property for so long as it is required as evidence as to the commission of a terrorism offence.

(4) In any proceedings on an application under subsection (2), a witness shall not be required to answer any question or to produce any document if the Court is satisfied that the answering of the question or the production of the document may prejudice the investigation of, or the prosecution of a person for, an offence.

(5) Where an application for a restraint order has been refused in relation to property referred to in subsection (1) and, at the time of such refusal, the property is in the possession of the Commissioner of Police the property shall, as soon as practicable after the refusal, be returned to the person from whose possession it was seized.

(6) Where property is seized under section 23 and, while the property is in the possession of the Commissioner of Police, a forfeiture order is made in respect thereof, the property shall be dealt with in accordance with the forfeiture order.

28.—(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions may make an application to the Court for an order of forfeiture in respect of applicable property wherever situate, whether inside or outside of Jamaica.

Order of forfeiture.

(2) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions makes an application under subsection (1)—

(a) he shall—

(i) give no less than fourteen days' written notice of the application to the entity convicted of the terrorism offence and to any other person who the Director of Public Prosecutions has reason to believe may have an interest in the property; and

(ii) publish a copy of the notice in the Gazette and in a daily newspaper printed and circulated in Jamaica;

(b) the entity convicted of the terrorism offence and any other person who claims an interest in the property may appear and adduce evidence at the hearing of the application;

(c) the Court, at any time before the final determination of the application—

(i) shall make an order for a valuation to be carried out in relation to the property and give such ancillary directions as the Court considers necessary for that purpose; and

(ii) may direct the Director of Public Prosecutions to give notice of the application to any person who, in the opinion of the Court, appears to have an interest in the property.

(3) Where an application is made under subsection (1), the Court may—

- (a) in determining the application, have regard to the transcript of any proceedings against the entity for the offence;
- (b) if satisfied that the property in respect of which the application is made is applicable property, order that the property or such part thereof as the Court may specify in the order, be forfeited to the Crown.

(4) Where the Court orders that property, other than money, be forfeited to the Crown, the Court shall specify in the order the amount representing the value of the property pursuant to a valuation carried out under subsection (2)(c)(i).

(5) In considering whether a forfeiture order should be made under subsection (1) the Court shall have regard to—

- (a) the rights and interests, if any, of third parties in the property;
- (b) the gravity of the offence concerned;
- (c) any hardship that may reasonably be expected to be caused to any person by the operation of the order; and
- (d) the use that is ordinarily made of the property, or the intended use of the property.

(6) Where the Court makes a forfeiture order under subsection (1), the Court may give such directions as are necessary or convenient for giving effect to the order.

(7) The Director of Public Prosecutions may, in accordance with rules of court, appeal against a decision of the Court to refuse an application under subsection (1).

Amendment of application.

29.—(1) The Court hearing an application under section 28(1) (hereafter in this section referred to as the original application) may, before final determination thereof, and on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions, amend the original application to include any other property, upon being satisfied that—

- (a) the property was not reasonably capable of identification when the original application was made; or
- (b) necessary evidence became available only after the original application was made.

(2) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions applies to amend an original application and the amendment would have the effect of including additional property in the original application, he shall give not less than fourteen days' written notice of the application to amend to any person who he has reason to believe may have an interest in the property to be included in the original application.

(3) Any person who claims an interest in the property to be included in the original application may appear and adduce evidence at the hearing of the application to amend.

30.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), where the Court makes a forfeiture order against any property, the property vests absolutely in the Crown by virtue of the order.

Effect of forfeiture order.

(2) Where such property is subject to the Registration of Titles Act—

- (a) the property vests in the Crown in equity but not at law until the applicable registration requirements have been complied with;
- (b) the Crown is entitled to be registered as owner of the property;
- (c) the Commissioner of Lands has power on behalf of the Crown to do, or authorize the doing of, anything necessary or convenient to obtain the registration of the Crown as owner, including the execution of any instrument required to be executed by a person transferring an interest in that kind of property.

(3) Where the Court makes a forfeiture order against property—

- (a) the property shall not, except with the leave of the Court and in accordance with any directions of the Court, be disposed of, or otherwise dealt with, by or on behalf of the Crown, before the relevant appeal date;
- (b) if, after the relevant appeal date, the order has not been discharged, the property may be disposed of and the proceeds applied or otherwise dealt with in accordance with the directions of the Attorney-General.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3)(b), the directions that may be given pursuant thereto include a direction that property is to be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of any enactment specified in the direction.

(5) In this section, “relevant appeal date” means—

- (a) the date on which the period allowed by the rules of court for the lodging of an appeal against a person’s conviction, or against the making of a forfeiture order, expires without an appeal having been lodged, whichever is the later; or
- (b) where the appeal against a person’s conviction or against the making of a forfeiture order is lodged, the date on which the appeal lapses in accordance with the rules of court or is finally determined, whichever is the later.

(6) A forfeiture order under this Act shall not affect the operation of the provisions of any other law respecting the forfeiture of property.

(7) Property is subject to forfeiture under section 28 (3)(b) only to the extent that it is not required to satisfy the operation of the provisions of any other law respecting restitution to, or compensation of, persons affected by the commission of offences.

(8) Before making a forfeiture order, the Court may set aside any conveyance or transfer of the property that occurred after the seizure of the property or the service of the restraint order, unless the conveyance or transfer was made for valuable consideration to a person acting in good faith and without notice.

31.—(1) Where an application is made for a forfeiture order against property, a person who claims an interest in the property may, before the forfeiture order is made, apply to the Court for an order under subsection (2).

Protection of third parties.

(2) If, pursuant to subsection (1), a person applies for an order the Court shall make an order declaring the nature, extent and value (as at the time the order is made) of the person's interest if the Court is satisfied—

- (a) that the person was not in any way involved in the commission of the offence; and
- (b) where the person acquired the interest during or after the commission of the offence, that he acquired the interest—
 - (i) for sufficient consideration; and
 - (ii) without knowing, or having reasonable grounds to suspect, that at the time he acquired it, the property was used in, or derived, obtained or realized directly or indirectly from, the commission of a terrorism offence.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where a forfeiture order has already been made against property, a person who claims an interest in the property may, before the end of the period of three months commencing on the day on which the forfeiture order is made or such longer period as the Court may, having regard to all the circumstances, allow, apply under this subsection to the Court for an order under subsection (2).

(4) A person who—

- (a) had knowledge of the application for the forfeiture order before the order was made; or
- (b) appeared at the hearing of that application, shall not, except with the leave of the Court, be permitted to make an application under subsection (3).

(5) A person who makes an application under subsection (1) or (3) shall give not less than fourteen days' written notice thereof to the Director of Public Prosecutions, who shall be a party to any proceedings in respect of the application.

(6) An applicant or the Director of Public Prosecutions may in accordance with rules of court, appeal to the Court of Appeal from an order made under subsection (2).

(7) Where a person has obtained an order under subsection (2) and the period allowed by rules of court with respect to the making of appeals has expired or any appeal from that order made pursuant to subsection (6) has been determined in the person's favour, the Attorney-General shall, on application of that person, direct that—

- (a) the property or the part thereof to which the applicant's interest relates, be returned to the applicant; or
- (b) an amount equal to the value of the applicant's interest, as declared in the order, be paid to the applicant

Discharge of forfeiture order on appeal or on quashing of conviction.

32.—(1) Where a forfeiture order is made in respect of a person's conviction of a terrorism offence and the conviction is subsequently quashed, the quashing of the conviction discharges the order.

(2) Where a forfeiture order is discharged as provided in subsection (1) or, as the case may be, by the Court on an appeal against the order, any person who claims to have had an interest in the property immediately before the making of the forfeiture order, may apply to the Attorney-General in writing for the return or, as the case may be, the transfer of the interest to him.

(3) On the receipt of an application under subsection (2), the Attorney-General shall—

- (a) if the interest is still vested in the Crown, direct that the property or part thereof to which the applicant's interest relates, be transferred or returned to the applicant; or
- (b) in any other case, direct that there be payable to the applicant, an amount equal to the value of the interest at the time when the order is made.

(4) In the exercise of the powers conferred by this section and section 31, the Attorney-General shall have power to do or authorize the doing of anything necessary or convenient to effect the transfer or return of property, including the execution of any instrument and the making of an application for the registration of an interest in the property.

33.—(1) A person who has an interest in property against which a forfeiture order is made may appeal against that order—

Appeals against forfeiture
orders.

- (a) in the case of a person convicted of the terrorism offence in respect of which the order was made, in the same manner as if the order were, or were part of, a sentence imposed on that person in respect of that offence; or
- (b) in any other case, in the same manner as if the person had been convicted of the terrorism offence in respect of which the order was made and the order were, or were part of, a sentence imposed on that person in respect of that offence.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be taken to affect any right of appeal that a person would have apart from this section.

34.—(1) Where a person (in this section and section 35 called “the defendant”) has been—

Application
for restraint
order.

- (a) convicted of a terrorism offence; or

(b) charged with a terrorism offence, the Director of Public Prosecutions may apply to the Court for a restraint order against any property in respect of which a forfeiture order may be made under section 28 (3)(b).

(2) An application for a restraint order may be made ex parte and shall be in writing and be accompanied by an affidavit stating—

- (a) where the defendant has been convicted of a terrorism offence, the terrorism offence for which the defendant was convicted, the date of the conviction, the Judge before whom the conviction was obtained and whether an appeal has been lodged against the conviction;
- (b) where the defendant has been charged with a terrorism offence, the terrorism offence for which he is charged and the grounds for believing that the defendant committed the offence;
- (c) a description of the property in respect of which the restraint order is sought;
- (d) the name and address of the person who is believed to be in possession of the property;
- (e) the grounds for believing that the property is applicable property in relation to the offence;
- (f) where the application seeks a restraint order against a person other than the defendant, the grounds for believing that the property is applicable property in relation to the offence or is subject to the effective control of the defendant; and
- (g) the grounds for believing that a forfeiture order may be or is likely to be made under this Act.

Restraint
orders.

35.—(1) Subject to this section, the Court may, on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions, make a restraint order against property wherever situate, whether inside or outside of Jamaica, if the Court is satisfied that—

- (a) the defendant has been convicted of a terrorism offence;
- (b) the defendant is charged with a terrorism offence and there are reasonable grounds for believing that the defendant committed the offence;
- (c) there are reasonable grounds for believing that the property is applicable property in relation to the terrorism offence for which the defendant is convicted or charged;
- (d) where the application seeks a restraint order against property of a person other than the defendant, there are reasonable grounds for believing that the property is applicable property in relation to the terrorism offence for which the defendant is convicted or charged or that the property is subject to the effective control of the defendant; or
- (e) there are reasonable grounds for believing that a forfeiture order is likely to be made under this Act.

(2) A restraint order may—

- (a) prohibit the defendant or any other person from disposing of, or otherwise dealing with, the property or such part thereof or interest therein as is specified in the order, except in such manner as may be specified in the order; and
- (b) at the request of the Director of Public Prosecutions, where the Court is satisfied that the circumstances so require—
 - (i) direct such person as the Court may appoint to take custody of the property or such part thereof as is specified in the order and to manage or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property in accordance with the directions of the Court; and
 - (ii) require any person having possession of the property to give possession thereof to the person appointed under sub-paragraph (i) to take custody of the property.

(3) A restraint order may be made subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, may make provision for meeting out of the property, or a specified part of the property, all or any of the following—

- (a) the person's reasonable living expenses including the reasonable living expenses of the person's dependants (if any) and reasonable business expenses;
- (b) the person's reasonable expenses in defending the criminal charge and any proceedings under this Act.

(4) In determining whether there are reasonable grounds for believing that property is subject to the effective control of the defendant, the Court may have regard to—

- (a) shareholding in, debentures over or directorships in, any company that has an interest (direct or indirect) in the property, and for this purpose the Court may order the investigation and inspection of the books of a company named in the order;
- (b) any trust that has a relationship with the property;
- (c) any relationship between persons having interests in the property or in such company or trusts as is referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), and any other persons.

(5) Where a person appointed under subsection (2)(b)(i) is given a direction in relation to any property, that person may apply to the Court for directions on any question respecting the management or preservation of the property concerned.

(6) An application under subsection (5) shall be served upon all persons interested in the application or such of them as the Court thinks expedient, and all such persons shall be entitled to appear and be heard at the hearing.

(7) A person appointed under subsection (2)(b)(i) shall, in acting on directions given by the Court, be deemed to have discharged his duty in the subject-matter of the application.

36.—(1) Before making an order under section 35, the Court may require the Crown to give such undertakings as the Court considers appropriate with respect to the payment of damages or costs, or both, in relation to the making and execution of the order.

Undertakings by Crown.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the Director of Public Prosecutions may, after consultation with the Attorney-General, on behalf of the Crown, give to the Court such undertakings with respect to the payment of damages or costs, or both, as are required by the Court.

37. Before making a restraint order, the Court may require notice to be given to, and may hear, any person who, in the opinion of the Court, appears to have an interest in the property, unless the Court is of the opinion that giving such notice before making the order would result in the disappearance, dissipation or reduction in the value of the property.

Notice of application
for restraint
order.

38. A copy of a restraint order shall be served on a person affected by the order in such manner as the Court directs or as may be prescribed by rules of court.

Service of restraint
order.

39.—(1) A copy of a restraint order that affects registered land in Jamaica shall be registered with the Registrar of the Supreme Court and with the Registrar of Titles who shall record the particulars of the order in the Register Book of Titles.

Registration of restraint
order.

(2) A restraint order is of no effect with respect to registered land unless it is so registered.

(3) Where particulars of a restraint order are registered as required by this section, a person who subsequently deals with the property concerned shall, for the purposes of section 31, be deemed to have notice of the order at the time of the dealing.

(4) The registration of a restraint order under this section shall be exempt from the payment of fees under the Registration of Titles Act and stamp duty under the Stamp Duty Act.

Contravention of restraint
order.

40.—(1) A person who knowingly contravenes a restraint order by disposing of, or otherwise dealing with, property that is subject to the restraint order commits an offence and is liable—

(a) on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court—

(i) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding one million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and imprisonment; or

(ii) in the case of a body corporate, to a fine not exceeding three million dollars;

(b) on conviction on indictment in a Circuit Court—

(i) in the case of an individual, to a fine or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and imprisonment; or

(ii) in the case of a body corporate, to a fine.

(2) Where a restraint order is made against property and—

(a) the property is disposed of or otherwise dealt with in contravention of the restraint order; and

(b) the disposition or dealing was not for sufficient consideration or not in favour of a person who acted in good faith and without notice, the Director of Public Prosecutions may apply to the Court for an order that the disposition or dealing be set aside.

(3) The Court may, on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions under subsection (2), set aside the disposition or dealing—

(a) as from the day on which the disposition or dealing took place; or

(b) as from the day of the order under this subsection, and declare the respective rights of any persons who acquired interests in the property on or after the day on which the disposition or dealing took place, and before the day of the order under this subsection.

41.—(1) A restraint order remains in force until—

(a) it is revoked under section 42 or 44;

(b) it ceases to be in force under section 43;

(c) a forfeiture order is made in respect of the property that is the subject of the order; or

(d) the property that is the subject of the order becomes forfeited to the Crown under any other enactment.

Duration of restraint
order.

(2) A restraint order shall cease to be in force in respect of any property or interest therein or any part thereof which is excluded from its application pursuant to section 42 (5).

42.—(1) A person who has an interest in property in respect of which a restraint order is made or that was seized under a warrant issued pursuant to section 23 may, at any time, apply to the Court—

(a) for an order under subsection (5); or

(b) for permission to examine the property.

Review of restraint
orders and search warrants.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall not be heard by the Court unless the applicant has given the Director of Public Prosecutions not less than three days' notice in writing of the application.

(3) The Court may require notice of the application to be given to, and may hear, any person who, in the opinion of the Court, appears to have an interest in the property.

(4) On an application under subsection (1)(a) in respect of any property, the Court may act in accordance with subsection (5) after hearing the applicant, the Director of Public Prosecutions or any other person who is notified under subsection (3).

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the Court may order that the property or any part thereof be returned to the applicant or, in the case of a restraint order, revoke the order or vary it to exclude the property or any interest therein or any part thereof from the application of the order, or make the order subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit—

- (a) if the applicant enters into a recognizance before the Court, with or without sureties, in such amount and with such conditions, as the Court directs, and where the Court considers it appropriate, deposits with the Court such sum of money or other valuable security as the Court directs;
- (b) if the conditions referred to in subsection (6) are satisfied; or
- (c) for the purpose of—
 - (i) meeting the reasonable living expenses of the person who was in possession of the property at the time the order was made or the warrant was executed or any person who, in the opinion of the Court, has an interest in the property and of the dependants of that person;
 - (ii) meeting the reasonable business or legal expenses of a person referred to in subparagraph (i).

(6) An order under subsection (5) in respect of property may be made if the Court is satisfied that—

- (a) a restraint order should not have been made or a warrant should not have been issued pursuant to section 23, in respect of the property;

- (b) the applicant is the lawful owner, or lawfully entitled to possession, of the property and appears innocent of any complicity in a terrorism offence or of any collusion in relation to such offence; and
- (c) the property will no longer be required for the purpose of any investigation or as evidence in any proceedings.

(7) On an application to the Court under subsection (1)(b), the Court may order that the applicant be permitted to examine the property subject to such terms as appear to the Court to be necessary or desirable to ensure that the property is safeguarded and preserved for the purpose for which it may subsequently be required.

43.—(1) Subject to this section, a restraint order shall not continue in force for a period of more than six months after the date when the order is made unless, before the expiration of that period, the Director of Public Prosecutions applies to the Court for an extension of the period of operation of the order.

Automatic expiry of restraint
orders.

(2) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions makes an application under subsection (1) and the Court is satisfied that a forfeiture order may be made in respect of the property concerned or part thereof, the Court may specify the period of operation of the restraint order and may make such other order as the Court considers appropriate in relation to the operation of the order.

44.—(1) Where the Court is satisfied that property will no longer be required for the purposes of—

Disposal of property
seized or dealt with.

- (a) section 28(3) (b) (forfeiture order on conviction);
- (b) any other enactment providing for forfeiture;
- (c) any investigation; or
- (d) evidence in any proceedings,

the Court shall, on the application of the Director of Public

Prosecutions or any person having an interest in the property, act in accordance with the following subsections.

(2) The Court may revoke any restraint order in respect of the property.

(3) Where the property has been seized under a warrant issued under section 23, or is under the control of a person appointed pursuant to section 35(2) (b) (i), the Court may order that the property be—

- (a) returned to the person from whom it was taken, if that person's possession of the property is lawful;
- (b) returned to the lawful owner or the person who is lawfully entitled to possession of it if—
 - (i) the person from whom it was taken was not lawfully entitled to possession of it; and
 - (ii) the lawful owner or the person lawfully entitled to its possession is known;
- (c) order that the property be forfeited to the Crown if—
 - (i) possession of it by the person from whom it was taken is unlawful; and
 - (ii) the lawful owner or person lawfully entitled to its possession is not known or cannot upon reasonable enquiry, be ascertained.

General

Consent of Director of Public Prosecutions.

45. Proceedings in respect of a terrorism offence or an offence under section 13 (failure to report terrorism offence), 15 or 16 (duty of entities to report) shall not be instituted without the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Extension of Jamaican local criminal jurisdiction.

46. For the purpose of conferring jurisdiction, any offence committed outside of Jamaica shall be deemed to have been committed in any place in Jamaica where the offender may for the time being be, if, had such offence been committed in Jamaica, the offence would be a terrorism offence.

47. The Minister may make regulations, subject to affirmative resolution, generally for giving effect to the provisions and purposes of this Act. Regulations.

48.—(1) The provisions of this Act shall be reviewed by a joint select committee of the Houses of Parliament after the expiration of two years from the 6th of June, 2005. Review of Act after two years.

(2) Except by order of the Court—

- (a) the validity of any proceedings taken, or any order in force, under this Act immediately before the expiration of the time specified in subsection (1) shall not be affected by any amendment or repeal of any of the provisions of this Act made pursuant to a review conducted under subsection (1); and
- (b) any such proceedings shall be continued and determined, and any such order shall continue in force for such duration, as if such amendment or repeal had not been made.
