II DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF OBLIGORS

1. Basic Duties

Article 6

An obligor shall:

1. carry out customer identification;
2. exercise thorough customer due diligence (hereinafter: customer due diligence);
3. report and provide data, information and documentation to the administration body competent for the affairs of preventing money laundering and terrorist financing (hereinafter: the competent administration body), in compliance with the provisions of this Law.
4. apply measures for preventing and detecting money laundering and terrorist financing in its registered office and organizational units outside the registered office;
5. determine a person authorized for undertaking the measures provided for by this Law and his/her deputy;
6. ensure a regular professional training and education of employees and internal control of meeting the obligations provided for by this Law;
7. compile and regularly keep up-to-date a list of indicators for identifying suspicious transactions, for which there are reasonable grounds for suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing;
8. ensure keeping and protecting data and keeping of required records, and
9. perform other affairs and obligations provided for by this Law and regulations passed on the basis of law.

Customer Identification

Article 7

Customer identification shall be a procedure including:

1. establishment of the identity of a customer, or if the identity has been previously established, verification of the identity on the basis of reliable, independent and objective sources, and

2. gathering data on a customer, or if data have been gathered, verifying the gathered data on the basis of reliable, independent and objective sources.

Risk Analysis

Article 8

An obligor shall make risk analysis which determines the risk assessment of groups of customers or of an individual customer, business relationship, transaction or product related to the possibility of misuse for the purpose of money laundering or terrorist financing.

The analysis from paragraph 1 of this Article shall be prepared pursuant to the guidelines on risk analysis.

The guidelines from the paragraph 2 of this Article shall be determined by the competent supervisory bodies from the Article 87 of this Law, pursuant to the regulation adopted by the ministry that has jurisdiction over financial affairs (hereinafter: the Ministry).

The regulation from paragraph 3 of this Article shall determine more specific criteria for guidelines development (obligor's size and composition, scope and type of affairs, customers, or products and the like), as well as the type of transactions for which, due to the absence of the risk of money laundering and terrorist financing, it is not necessary to carry out customer identification in the context of this Law.

Cases in which customer due diligence measures are undertaken

Article 9

An obligor shall undertake customer due diligence measures particularly in the following cases:

1. when establishing a business relationship with a customer;
2. of one or more linked transactions amounting to €15 000;
3. when there is a suspicion about the accuracy or veracity of the obtained customer identification data, and
4. when there are reasonable grounds for suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing.

If the transactions from paragraph 1 item 2 of this Article are based on an already established business relationship, an obligor shall verify the identity of the customer that carries out the transaction and gather additional data.

An organizer of special games of chances shall in carrying out the transaction from paragraph 1 item 2 of this Article verify the identity of a customer at a cash-desk and obtain the data from the Article 72 item 6 of this Law.

Also, in the context of this Law, the following shall be considered as establishing a business relationship:

1. customer registration for participating in the system of organizing games of chances at the organizers that organize games of chances on the Internet or by other telecommunication means, and
2. customer's access to the rules of managing a mutual fund at managing companies.

Activities undertaken by an obligor

Article 10

When establishing a business relationship an obligor shall apply the following measures:

1. to identify a customer and beneficial owner if the customer is a legal person:
2. to obtain and verify data on a customer, or beneficial owner, if the customer is a legal person, on the purpose and nature of a business relationship or transaction and other data pursuant to this Law, and
3. to monitor regularly the business activities that a customer undertakes with the obligor and verify their compliance with the nature of a business relationship and the usual scope and type of customer's affairs.

Customer control when establishing a business relationship

Article 11

Before the establishment of a business relationship an obligor shall apply the measures from Article 10 items 1 and 2 of this Law.

Exceptionally an obligor can apply the measures from paragraph 1 of this Article during the establishment of a business relationship with a customer if this is necessary for the establishment of a business relationship and where there is insignificant risk of money laundering or terrorist financing.

When concluding a life insurance contract obligor from Article 4 paragraph 2 item 8 of this Law can exert control over the insurance policy beneficiary after concluding the insurance contract, but not later than the time when the beneficiary according to the policy can exercise his/her rights.

Control of the customer before carrying out a transaction

Article 12

When carrying out transactions from Article 9 paragraph 1 item 2 of this Law an obligor shall apply the measures from Articles 7 and 10 items 1 and 2 of this Law before carrying out the transaction.

Transactions that do not require the application of customer due diligence measures

Article 13

Insurance companies conducting life insurance business and business units of foreign insurance companies licensed to conduct life insurance business Montenegro, founders, managers of pension funds, and legal and natural persons conducting representation and brokerage business in insurance, when entering into life insurance contracts do not need to conduct the verification of a customer when:

1. entering into life insurance contracts where an individual instalment of premium or multiple instalments of premium, payable in one calendar year, do not exceed the amount of €1,000, or where the payment of a single premium does not exceed the amount of €2,500;
2. concluding pension insurance business providing that it is:
 - insurance within which it is not possible to assign the insurance policy to a third person or to use it as security for a credit or borrowing, or
 - a conclusion of a collective insurance contract ensuring the right to a pension.

Domestic and foreign companies and business units of foreign companies that issue electronic money do not need to conduct the verification of a customer when:

1. issuing electronic money, if the single maximum value issued on the electronic data carrier, upon which it is not possible to re-deposit value, does not exceed the amount of €150, and
2. issuing and dealing with electronic money, if the total amount of value kept on the electronic data carrier, upon which it is possible to re-deposit value, and which in the current calendar year does not exceed the amount of €2,500, unless the holder of electronic money in the same calendar year cashes the amount of €1,000 or more.

An obligor does not need to conduct control over a customer to whom it provides other services or related transactions representing an insignificant risk of money laundering or terrorist financing, unless there are reasonable grounds for suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing.

Cases representing an insignificant risk of money laundering or terrorist financing shall be more specifically regulated by a regulation of the Ministry.

2. Applying customer control measures

Establishing and verifying a natural person identity

Article 14

An obligor shall establish and verify the identity of a customer that is a natural person or of his/her legal representative, entrepreneurship, or a natural person performing activities, by checking the personal identification document of a customer in his/her presence and obtain data from Article 71 item 4 of this Law. In case the required data cannot be established on the basis of the submitted identification document, the missing data shall be obtained from other valid official document submitted by a customer.

Identity of a customer from paragraph 1 of this Article can be established on the basis of a qualified electronic certificate of a customer, issued by a certification service provider in accordance with the regulations on electronic signature and electronic business.

Within establishing and verifying the identity of a customer in the manner determined in paragraph 2 of this Article an obligor shall enter the data on a customer from the qualified electronic certificate into data records from Article 70 of this Law. The data that cannot be obtained from a qualified electronic certificate shall be obtained from the copy of the personal identification document submitted to an obligor by a customer in written or electronic form, and if it is not possible to obtain all required data in that manner, the missing data shall be obtained directly from the customer.

Certification service provider from paragraph 2 of this Article that has issued a qualified electronic certificate to a customer shall, upon an obligor's request, without delay submit the data on the manner of establishing and verifying the identity of a customer who is a holder of the qualified electronic certificate.

Establishing and verifying the identity of a customer using a qualified electronic certificate is not permitted when:

1. opening accounts at obligors from Article 4 paragraph 2 items 1 and 2 of this Law, except in the case of opening a temporary deposit account for paying in founding capital, and
2. there is suspicion of qualified electronic certificate misuse or when an obligor determines that the circumstances that have significant effect on the certification validity have changed.

If an obligor, when establishing and verifying the identity of a customer, doubts the accuracy of obtained data or veracity of documents and other business files from which the data have been obtained, he/she/it shall request a written statement from a customer.

Establishing and verifying the identity of a legal person

Article 15

An obligor shall establish and verify the identity of a customer that is a legal person and obtain the data from Article 71 item 1 of this Law by checking the original or certified copy of the document from the Central Register of the Commercial Court (hereinafter: CRCC) or other appropriate public register, submitted by an agent on behalf of a legal person.

The document from paragraph 1 of this Article may not be older than three months of its issue date.

An obligor can establish and verify the identity of a legal person and obtain data from Article 71 item 1 of this Law by checking CRCC or other appropriate public register. On the register excerpt that has been checked an obligor shall state date and time and the name of the person that has made the check. An organization shall keep the excerpt from the register in accordance with law.

An obligor shall obtain data from Article 71 items 2, 7, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 of this Law by checking the originals or certified copies of documents and other business files. If data cannot be determined by checking identifications and documentation, the missing data shall be obtained directly from an agent or authorized person.

If, during establishing and verifying the identity of a legal person, an obligor doubts the accuracy of the obtained data or veracity of identification and other business files from which the data have been obtained, he/she/it shall obtain a written statement from an agent or authorized person before establishing a business relationship or executing a transaction.

If a customer is a foreign legal person performing activities in Montenegro through its business unit, an obligor shall establish and verify the identity of a foreign legal person and its business unit.

Establishing and verifying the identity of the agent of a legal person

Article 16

An obligor shall establish and verify the identity of an agent and obtain data from Article 71 item 2 of this Law by checking the personal identification document of the agent in his/her presence.

If the required data cannot be determined from the personal identification document, the missing data shall be obtained from other official document submitted by the agent or authorised person.

If an obligor doubts the accuracy of the obtained data when establishing and verifying the identity of an agent, he/she/it shall require agent's written statement.

Establishing and verifying the identity of an authorised person

Article 17

If an authorised person establishes a business relationship on behalf of a customer that is a legal person, an obligor shall establish and verify the identity of an authorised person and obtain data from Article 71 item 2 of this Law by checking the personal identification document of an authorised person and in his/her presence. If the required data cannot be determined from the personal identification document, the missing data shall be obtained from other official document submitted by the authorised person.

An obligor shall obtain data from paragraph 1 of this Article on the agent on whose behalf the authorised person acts, from a certified written power of authorization, issued by the agent.

If the transaction from Article 9 paragraph 1 item 2 of this Law is executed by an authorised person on customer's behalf, an obligor shall verify the identity of the authorised person and obtain data from Article 71 item 3 of this Law on a customer that is a natural person, entrepreneurship or natural person, performing an activity.

If an obligor doubts the accuracy of the obtained data when establishing and verifying the identity of an agent, he/she/it shall obtain agent's written statement.

Special cases of establishing and verifying customer identity

Article 18

The customer's identity, pursuant to Article 7 of this Law, shall be established, or verified particularly in the following cases:

1. when a customer enters the premises where special games of chance are organized;
2. on any approach of a lessee or his/her agent, or a person he/she has authorized, to the safe deposit box.

When establishing and verifying the customer's identity pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article an organizer of games of chance or an obligor performing the activity of safekeeping shall obtain the data from Article 71 items 6 and 8 of this Law.

3. Establishing the beneficial owner

Beneficial Owner

Article 19

In the context of this Law the following shall be considered as a beneficial owner of a business organization or legal person:

1. a natural person who indirectly or directly owns more than 25% of the shares, voting rights and other rights, on the basis of which he/she participates in the management, or owns more than a 25% share of the capital or has a dominating influence in the assets management of the business organization, and
2. a natural person that indirectly ensures or is ensuring funds to a business organization and on that basis has the right to influence significantly the decision making process of the managing body of the business organization when decisions concerning financing and business are made.

Also, a business organization, legal person, as well as an institution or other foreign legal person that is directly or indirectly a holder of at least €500,000 of shares, or capital share, shall be considered a foreign owner.

As a beneficial owner of an institution or other foreign legal person (trust, fund and the like) that receives, manages or allocates assets for certain purposes, in the context of this Law, shall be considered:

1. a natural person, that indirectly or directly controls more than 25% of a legal person's asset or of a similar foreign legal entity, and
2. a natural person, determined or determinable as a beneficiary of more than 25% of the income from property that he/she manages.

Establishment of a beneficial owner of a legal person or foreign legal entity

Article 20

An obligor shall establish the beneficial owner of a legal person or foreign legal person by obtaining data from Article 71 item 15 of this Law.

An obligor shall obtain the data from paragraph 1 of this Article by checking the original or certified copy of the documentation from the CRCC or other appropriate public register that may not be older than three months of its issue date or obtain them on the basis of the CRCC or other public register in accordance with Article 14 paragraphs 3 and 5 of this Law.

If the required data cannot be obtained in the manner determined in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, an obligor shall obtain the missing data from a written statement of an agent or authorised person.

Data on beneficial owners of a legal person or similar foreign legal entity shall be verified to the extent that ensures complete and clear insight into the beneficial ownership and managing authority of a customer respecting risk-degree assessment.

4. Obtaining data on the purpose and intended nature of a business relationship or transaction

Article 21

Within the control of a customer from Article 9 paragraph 1 item 1 of this Law, an obligor shall obtain data from Article 71 items 1, 2, 4, 5, 7, 8 and 15 of this Law.

Within the control of a customer from Article 9 paragraph 1 item 2 of this Law, an obligor shall obtain data from Article 71 items 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 15 of this Law.

Within the control of a customer from Article 9 paragraph 1 items 3 and 4 of this Law, an obligor shall obtain data from Article 71 of this Law.

5. Monitoring business activities

Article 22

An obligor shall monitor customer's business activities, including the sources of funds the customer uses for business, in order to identify the customer more easily.

Monitoring business activities from paragraph 1 of this Article at an obligor shall particularly include the following:

1. verifying the compliance of customer's business with nature and purpose of contractual relationship;
2. monitoring and verifying the compliance of customer's business with usual scope of her/his affairs, and
3. monitoring and regular updating of documents and data on a customer, which includes conducting repeated annual control of a customer in the cases from Article 24 of this Law.

An obligor shall ensure and adjust the dynamics of undertaking measures from paragraph 1 of this Article to the risk of money laundering and terrorist financing, to which an obligor is exposed when performing certain work or when dealing with a customer.

Repeated annual control of a foreign legal person

Article 23

If a foreign legal person executes transactions from Article 9 paragraph 1 of this Law at an obligor, the obligor shall, in addition to monitoring business activities from Article 22 of this Law, conduct repeated annual control of a foreign legal person at least once a year, and not later than after the expiry of one year period since the last control of a customer.

By the way of exception to paragraph 1 of this Article an obligor shall, at least once a year, and not later than after the expiry of one year period since the last control of a customer, also conduct repeated control when the customer executing transactions from Article 9 paragraph 1 of this Law is a legal person with a registered office in Montenegro, if the foreign capital share in that legal person is at least 25%.

Repeated annual control of a customer from paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall include:

1. obtaining or verifying data on the company, address and registered office;
2. obtaining data on personal name and permanent and temporary residence of an agent;
3. obtaining data on a beneficial owner, and
4. obtaining a new power of authorization from Article 17 paragraph 2 of this Law.

If the business unit of a foreign legal person executes transactions from Article 9 paragraph 1 of this Law on behalf and for the account of a foreign legal person, an obligor, when conducting repeated control of a foreign legal person, in addition to data from paragraph 3 of this Article, shall also obtain:

1. data on the address and registered office of the business unit of a foreign legal person, and
2. data on personal name and permanent residence of the agent of the foreign legal person business unit .

An obligor shall obtain the data from paragraph 3 items 1, 2 and 3 of this Article by checking the original or certified copy of the documentation from the CRCC or other appropriate public register that may not be older than three months of its issue date, or by checking the CRCC or other appropriate public register. If the required data cannot be obtained by checking the documentation, the missing data shall be obtained from the original or certified copy of documents and other business files, forwarded by a legal person upon an obligor's request, or directly from a written statement of the agent of a legal person from paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article.

By the way of exception to paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this Article an obligor shall conduct repeated control of a foreign person from Article 30 item 1 of this Law.

6. Special types of customer verification

Article 24

Special types of customer verification in the context of this Law shall be:

1. enhanced customer verification, and
2. simplified customer verification.

Enhanced customer verification

Article 25

Enhanced customer verification, in addition to the identification from Article 7 of this Law, shall include additional measures in the following cases:

1. on entering into open account relationship with a bank or other similar credit institution, with registered office outside the EU or outside the states from the list;
2. on entering into business relationship or executing transaction from Article 9 paragraph 1 item 2 of this Law with a customer that is a politically exposed person from Article 27 of this Law, and
3. when a customer is not present during the verification process of establishing and verifying the identity.

An obligor shall apply a measure or measures of enhanced customer verification from Articles 26, 27 or 28 of this Law in the cases when he/she/it estimates, that due to the nature of a business relationship, type and manner of transaction execution, business profile of a customer or other circumstances related to the customer, there is or there could be a risk of money laundering or terrorist financing.

Open accounts relationship of banks and credit institutions from third countries

Article 26

When establishing an open account relationship with a bank or other similar credit institution that has a registered office outside the EU or outside the states from the list, an obligor shall carry out customer identification pursuant to Article 7 of this Law and obtain the following data:

1. issue date and validity of the license for providing banking services and the name and registered office of the competent state body that issued the license;
2. description of conducting internal procedures, related to detection and prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing, and in particular, customer verification procedures, determining beneficial owners, reporting data on suspicious transactions and customers to competent bodies, records keeping, internal control and other procedures, that a bank or other similar credit institution has established in relation to preventing and detecting money laundering and terrorist financing;
3. description of systemic organization in the area of detecting and preventing money laundering and terrorist financing, applied in a third country, where a bank or other similar credit institution has a registered office or where it has been registered;
4. a written statement, that a bank or other similar credit institution in the state where it has a registered office or where it has been registered, under legal supervision and that, in compliance with legislation of that state, it shall apply appropriate regulations in the area of detecting and preventing money laundering and terrorist financing;
5. a written statement that a bank or other similar credit institution does not operate as a shell bank, and
6. a written statement that a bank or other similar credit institution has not established or it does not establish business relationships or executes transactions with shell banks.

Employed with an obligor that concludes contracts from paragraph 1 of this Article shall conduct an enhanced customer verification procedure and obtain written consent of an obligor's person in charge, before concluding the contract.

An obligor shall obtain the data from paragraph 1 of this Article from public or other available data records, or by checking documents and business files provided by a bank or other similar credit institution with a registered office outside the EU and outside the states from the list.

Politically exposed persons

Article 27

A natural person that is acting or has been acting in the last year on a distinguished public position in a state, including his/her immediate family members and close associates, shall, in the context of this Law, be considered politically exposed person, as follows:

1. presidents of states, prime ministers, ministers and their deputies or assistants, heads of administration authority and authorities of local governance units, as well as their deputies or assistants and other officials;
2. elected representatives of legislative authorities;
3. holders of the highest juridical and constitutionally judicial office;
4. members of State Auditors Institution or supreme audit institutions and central banks councils;
5. consuls, ambassadors and high officers of armed forces, and
6. members of managing and supervisory bodies of enterprises with majority state ownership.

Marital or extra-marital partner and children born in a marital or extra-marital relationship and their marital or extra-marital partners, parents, brothers and sisters shall be deemed immediate family members of the person from paragraph 1 of this Article.

A natural person that has a common profit from the asset or established business relationship or other type of close business contacts shall be deemed a close assistant of the person from paragraph 1 of this Article.

Within enhanced customer verification from paragraph 1 of this Article, in addition to identification from Article 7 of this Law, an obligor shall:

1. obtain data on funds and asset sources, that are the subject of a business relationship or transaction, from personal or other documents submitted by a customer, and if the prescribed data cannot be obtained from the submitted documents, the data shall be obtained directly from a customer's written statement;
2. obtain a written consent of the person in charge before establishing business relationship with a customer, and

3. after establishing a business relationship, monitor with special attention transactions and other business activities carried out with an institution by a politically exposed person.

An obligor shall by an internal enactment, in accordance with the guidelines of a competent supervisory authority, determine the procedure of identifying a politically exposed person.

Establishing the identity of a customer in absence

Article 28

If a customer is not present during establishing and verifying the identity, an obligor shall, within enhanced customer verification, in addition to the identification from Article 7 of this Law, undertake one or more additional measures, such as:

1. to obtain additional documents, data or information, on the basis of which he/she verifies customer identity, and
2. to verify submitted documents or obtain a certificate from a financial institution performing payment operations, that the first customer's payment has been made on the account opened with that institution.

Simplified customer verification

Article 29

Unless there are reasonable grounds for suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing in relation to a customer or transaction from Article 9 paragraph 1 items 1 and 2 of this Law, an obligor can conduct simplified verification of a customer that is:

1. the obligor from Article 4 paragraph 2 items 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 8 and 9 of this Law or other appropriate institution that has a registered office in the EU or in a state from the list;
2. state body or local governance body and other legal persons exercising public powers;
3. an organization whose securities are included in the trade on the organized market in the EU member states or other states where the EU standards are applied on the stock markets, and
4. the customer from Article 8 paragraph 4 of this Law to whom an insignificant risk of money laundering or terrorist financing is related.

The list of the states from paragraph 1 of this Article shall be determined by the Ministry.

Obtaining and verifying customer data

Article 30

Simplified customer verification from Article 29 of this Law shall include obtaining data when:

1. establishing a business relationship, the data on:
 - a company and the registered office of a legal person that establishes, or on whose behalf and for whose account a business relationship is being established;
 - the personal name of an agent or authorized person that establishes a business relationship for a legal person, and
 - the purpose, nature and date of establishing a business relationship;
2. executing transactions from Article 9 paragraph 1 item 2 of this Law:
 - company and the registered office of a legal person, on whose behalf and for whose account a transaction is being conducted;
 - the personal name of an agent or authorized person conducting a transaction for a legal person;
 - date and time of executing a transaction;
 - the amount of a transaction, currency and the manner of executing a transaction, and
 - the purpose of a transaction, personal name and permanent residence, or a company and registered office of a legal person whom the transaction is intended to.

An obligor shall obtain data from paragraph 1 of this Article by checking the originals or certified copies of the documentation from CRCC or other appropriate public register submitted by a customer or by direct check.

If the required data cannot be obtained in the manner from paragraph 2 of this Article, the missing data shall be obtained from the originals or certified copies of identification documents and other business files submitted by a customer, or from the written statement of an agent or authorised person.

Documentation from paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this Article may not be older than three months of its issue date.

Limitations for carrying on business with a customer

Article 31

An obligor may not, for a customer, open, or keep an anonymous account, a coded or bearer passbook or provide other service (banking product) that can indirectly or directly enable the concealment of a customer identity.

Prohibition of carrying on business with shell banks

Article 32

An obligor may not establish correspondent or open account relationship with a bank that operates or could operate as a shell bank or with other similar credit institution known for allowing shell banks to use its accounts.

7. Reporting obligation
