PART III

CONTROL OF ARMAMENTS

11--(1) Subject to this section, no person shall, after the commencement of this Act, except under and in accordance with the terms of an authorization in the prescribed form granted by the Board, carry, convey or have in his possession or under his control any armaments.

Prohibition on possession
and conveyance
of armaments

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to any armaments which are in the possession of the Government and which are duly in the possession or under the control of some department or person on behalf of the Government with the knowledge and consent of the Government.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not apply to armaments on board any ship, vehicle, aircraft, vessel or other conveyance belonging to a foreign power and which is, with the knowledge and permission of the Government, in transit through the United Republic.

12.--(1) No person shall import into or export from, or cause to be imported into or exported from the United Republic any armaments except with and under the terms of an authorization in the prescribed form granted by the Board.

Prohibi-
tion on export, import of armaments
etc.

(2) No armaments shall be imported except at a port, airport or other entry point prescribed in that behalf by the Minister by writing under his hand, and the person in charge of every vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other conveyance having on board as cargo any armaments, whether in transit or for transshipment or otherwise, shall, on arrival forthwith furnish to the port, airport authority or the authority at the other entry point, as the case may be, a manifest of the cargo.

(3) All armaments imported into the United Republic and intended for any destination outside the United Republic shall, if landed prior to transshipment, be stored only in such godowns or places designated in writing in that behalf by the Minister.

13.--(1) No armaments shall be manufactured or assembled in the United Republic except at arsenals established by the Government in accordance with the terms of an authorization in the prescribed form granted by the Board.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, a licence or other permit granted under the Arms and Ammunition Act enabling the holder to manufacture arms or ammunition shall not be deemed as sufficing for the purposes of this Act, save that the holder of such licence or permit shall not be required to pay any fee under this Act for the purposes of obtaining an authorization under this section.

Issue of search warrant in certain
cases,
searches,
etc.

14.-(1) Whenever it appears to a magistrate, upon the oath of any person, that there is reasonable cause to suspect that any armaments are in any building, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or elsewhere in contravention of this Act, the magistrate may by warrant directed to any police officer or other person appointed by the Minister in that behalf, empower him with such assistants as may be necessary, by day or by night--

(a) to enter and, if necessary, to break into such building, vessel aircraft, vehicle or other conveyance or place, and to search for and take possession of any armaments which may be found there, and to carry the same before a magistrate; and

(b) to arrest any person who may appear to have such armaments in his possession, custody or control.

(2) Whenever any vessel, aircraft or other conveyance not being a ship, aircraft or other conveyance of war, whether under way or not, is about to leave the territory, waters or airspace of the United Republic, the master or officer in charge of the vessel, aircraft or other conveyance may, without any warrant for the purpose, search or cause to be searched all passengers liable to search and their luggage, baggage, and goods, for armaments and may for that purpose, where necessary, use force or break open any cases, boxes or other receptacles wherein any item of armament is or may reasonably be expected to be concealed.

(3) Any person who is in possession of such armaments or item of armament may be arrested forthwith by the master or officer in charge of the vessel, aircraft or other conveyance and, unless the person satisfactorily accounts for the armaments, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and liable to punishment.
